3 Men Drown When Car Plunges Off River Ferry

Accident Occurs In Westlock Area

Three Alberta men were drowned early this morning when the car they were driving plunged off a ferry at Holmes Crossing into the Athabaska River.

Dead are: Clyde Cliff, 50, Julius Machtenes and Gus Schultz, both about 30. All men were from the Fort Assiniboine district.

Accident occurred about 1:15 this morning.

Holmes crossing is northwest of Westlock about 54 miles north of Edmonton.

RCMP are still investigating the triple tragedy.

BOY HEROES ARE REWARDED

CITY HEROES are eight-year-old Kenny Logan, left, of 10434-95 street and Eddie Zrubak, six, of 10430-93 street, right, presented with $100 each for their part in capture of suspect charged with robbery of $8,000 from city hotelman Brant Matthews. Boys found money in bush near their play "hideout". They say they'll bank reward.

Attlee Believed Delaying Call for British Election

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Britain's Conservatives opened their annual party conference today in an atmosphere of election fervor, with Deputy Leader Anthony Eden blasting sterling devaluation as a cut in wages, living standards and social services.

However, there were increasing signs that Prime Minister Attlee's government may wait until next spring before calling an election, for which there has been increasing pressure ever since last month's devaluation of the pound sterling from $4.03 to $2.80 in U.S. funds.

Attlee sees Foreign Secretary Bevin tonight on the election question. The press association's political expert, who often has political guidance, said some informed Labor members would bet 100 to 1 against an election in November. The Labor government's five-year term expires next July, but Attlee can call an election any time before then.

EDEN SEES HARD ROAD

The Tory conference, biggest in Conservative party history with 4,500 delegates attending, unanimously adopted a resolution condemning the Labor government's financial and economic policies.

Eden said the Labor government "has spent too much time destroying wealth and too little time creating it," adding that unless Britain takes a new course, the fall in the standard of living, "which must in any event be painful, will be catastrophic."

"What must we do?" Eden asked. "We can promise nothing but hard and challenging times. That is now the only road to national solvency."

"In some industries this will mean longer hours. In every industry it will mean more effort of brain and muscle in the hours being worked," he said.

BELT PUTS POUNDS ON WAISTLINE, BOYS

DENVER, Colo., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Want to reduce your waistline without dieting, fella?

Wear suspenders, says an expert of the American Dietetic Association. The slim advisor who doesn't want to be named said the secret is this:

Belt-wearing men unconsciously expand their stomachs to keep their trousers from slipping.

He said 26 pot-bellied men switched to braces and reduced their waistlines an average of 1⅝ inches.

Increase in Ash Fall Price of Improvement

Rossdale community residents jammed city council chamber last night to protest the spray of ashes and cinders on the area from power plant smoke stacks. They left with no definite assurance that the nuisance will be immediately reduced.

They learned that forced draft of plant boilers over the past two years has increased the ash and cinder output, but that when alterations now being carried out are completed, it should be materially reduced.

"The answer is not as simple as many seem to think," said Mayor Ainlay. "It isn't a case merely of putting a piece of galvanized pipe in the stacks."

One boiler is now being converted to gas, and should be finished in six weeks, said Superintendent W. I. McFarland. This is as far as he expects to go this winter, and the second it due to be completed next summer.

Since boilers must be taken off production when the change is being made, others have to be pushed harder, with resulting increase in cinder and ash output through the stack, he said.

Baffles now being installed in other boilers should be completed next week, said Mr. McFarland, and he will report to commissioners then on reduction of ash through the move.

Ald. Fred Mitchell suggested Rossdale residents can expect abatement of the nuisance when all contemplated work at the plant is completed.

City Acquires Lot for Hotel

Agreement has been reached with the owner of Butchers' Supply for acquisition of one of the remaining lots on which Macdonald hotel extension will be built, Mayor Harry Ainlay last night told council.

The city has agreed to pay $76,000 and a lot on Jasper avenue west.

Involved in the deal is removal of a car sales lot from the Jasper avenue site to the lot now operated by Jesse Jones beside the Qu'Appelle building on 100 street and 102A avenue. To accomplish this, city commissioners agreed to give Mr. Jones additional space in the same area for parking purposes.

"That's the explanation for the car sales signs on the lot," said the mayor.

Commissioners were empowered recently to negotiate for acquisition of the remaining two lots needed for the Macdonald extension deal, and Ald. Sid Bowcott commended the mayor for his negotiations.

Grandstand Work Begins

Excavation for new grandstand at the exhibition grounds will start immediately.

Announcement of start of work on the $500,000 8,000-seat structure was made by James Paul, managing director of the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

Contract for the work was let today to Christensen and Macdonald, Edmonton contractors.

5,000 SEATS FOR FAIR

Completion of the stand for the 1950 summer fair is not epected, but work will have progressed to the point that seating accommodation for approximately 5,000 will be available.

Bleachers at the west end of the enclosure will be moved closer to the new stand for convenience of patrons.

Betting facilities incorporated in the new stand will not be ready for next year's racing season, and present mutuel sheds will be retained.

Gov't Set To Enter Rail Parley

Ace Conciliators Named By Cabinet In Vital Dispute

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Government conciliators will step into the wage-hours dispute between the railways and union representatives of 112,000 employes, Labor Minister Mitchell announced yesterday.

Taking action at the request of the unions, the Labor department assigned two of its ace conciliators to help in the slow-moving negotiations over demands of 12 international unions for shorter hours and higher pay.

SAME STEPS SEEN

At the same time, there were indications that the big Canadian union involved in a similar dispute with the railroads—the 30,000-member Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employes—also would call for the same step in its negotiations.

M. M. Maclean, director of industrial relations, is moving in personally as conciliator. With him will be H. R. Pettigrove, industrial relations officer at Fredericton.

Collapse of negotiations for wage increases last year brought the unions to the verge of a strike that would have crippled the Canadian economy. Only 11th-hour interven-

Brighter Days Are Due Here

Seasonable temperatures of the past several days will continue in Edmonton area today with a greater measure of sunshine.

The mass of warmer Pacific air which brought warmer temperatures to Edmonton has now spread over most of the prairies. The cloudiness that originally accompanied the movement is giving way to clear periods with "sunny all day" the prospect for tomorrow.

Precipitation during the past 24 hour period was very slight over the prairies with most falling in the northern Alberta region. Grande Prairie reported a fall of .02 inches, Lesser Slave .10 inches and Lac La Biche .05.

Freezing temperatures were rare over the prairies last night. Whitecourt reported 31, Penhold 31, Vermilion 25 and North Battleford 30.

Forecast for today and tomorrow: Cloudy with a few clear periods today. Sunny Thursday with little change in temperature. Winds northwest 30, dropping to light tonight. Low tonight 30, high tomorrow 55.

Gleave Seeks Mayor's Seat

Alderman George Gleave last night publicly tossed his hat into the mayoralty ring.

He is the second sitting alderman to do so. Ald. Sid Parsons previously indicated his intention of running for mayor.

Ald. Gleave prefaced his tribute to Mayor Ainlay at last night's council meeting with the statement that he probably will not be a candidate for alderman on Nov. 2.

Queried later, he said that regardless of Citizens' Committee endorsation, he will definitely be in the running for the office of mayor.

China Red Armies Close on Canton

By Arthur Goul
United Press Staff Correspondent

CANTON, China, Oct. 12.—(UP)—Chinese Communist forces swept within 35 miles of this disintegrating temporary nationalist capital today.

Nationalist officials were fleeing aboard every available plane to either Chungking or Taipeh on Formosa. They are expected to be designated co-capitals of Nationalist China when Canton falls.

However, acting president Li Tsung-Jen and his cabinet still were in Canton this morning. They were awaiting the return of Premier Yen Hsi-Shan, who flew to Formosa yesterday to consult Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

ENTER HILL RESORT

Communist Gen. Chen Keng sent his spearheads late today into Tsungfa, famed hill resort 35 miles northeast of Canton. From Tsungfa a broad paved highway leads directly into the city.

Not far behind the vanguards, 30,000 troops of the 15th and 16th Red armies were advancing rapidly southward from Fokang. Another 10,000 men were said to be driving down the railroad from Yingtak, 75 miles north of Canton.

ATTACK FROM WEST

Still another column has bypassed Tsingyun, 45 miles northwest of Canton, crossed the Pei river and is preparing to attack Canton from the west.

New Market May Proceed On New Plan

Edmonton may yet have a new market building, with funds from current estimates, according to council's decision last night.

It was decided on Ald. Fred Mitchell's motion to ask commissioners to consider building it as an ordinary current expenditure. Ald. James Douglas said earlier he did not want to see council go ahead without making provision for a new market.

Council received as information the report of public utility commissioners which rejected money bylaws on a $1,500,000 auditorium, the $150,000 swimming pool, and $100,000 market.

The board might have given ratepayers a chance to say what they think of the auditorium, said Ald. Sid Bowcott. "It is a great disappointment to many citizens," he said.

Ald. Gleave said the city will in future have to consider the charter power of two men (utility commissioners) over city expenditures, and suggested the city take steps to study it carefully.

LOVER'S QUARREL

Ding-Dong Daddy's Troubles Over Again

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Oct. 12.—(UP)—The "Ding-Dong-Daddy of the D-Line" and his umpteenth bride were at peace with the world and themselves today with the blessing of a superior court judge.

Judge Herbert C. Kaufman revealed that harmony once again had been restored to the honeymoon cottage of Francis H. Van Wie, the much-married ex-conductor, and his 13th (or maybe 20th) wife.

"It was just a lover's quarrel," said Mrs. Van Wie in explaining the tears that sent her running to Kaufman last week. She had complained that her balding husband was too amorous and entirely too much of a pennypincher with funds to run the house.

She said it was their first quarrel of their married life and blamed it on his rounds of East Bay taverns. Van Wie, who once kept kept three wives along his streetcar conductor's route in San Farncisco, then became abusive, she charged.

So Judge Kaufman, who married the couple recently, interceded in the dispute. As a result, Van Wie promised to quiet down "both at home and in taverns," to give his wife more money for household expenses and to let her be boss of the home.

Mrs. Van Wie, a 42-year-old waitress, then returned to her remorseful husband, declared: "It's all a thing of the past."

Budget Set Again Oct. 20

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Finnance Minister Abbott announced today in the commons that barring unforeseen circumstances he will reintroduce the 1949-50 budget next Thursday, Oct. 20, at 5 p.m., Edmonton time.

Mr. Abbott introduced the budget originally last March 22 but the session was prorogued April 30 without the budget having been approved.

Thousands Arrested By Red Czech Gov't

By Richard Kasischke

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The Communist-led government, rounding up thousands of political suspects in a giant police operation, tonight ordered Czechs to surrender all privately-owned firearms.

Prague citizens formed long lines at police stations to surrender licensed guns. Some said they had been summoned urgently to report for a "revision" of their firearms licenses. When they appeared they learned a revision really meant a revocation and they had to leave their guns.

The inference was that the government feared to leave guns in private hands. Even such relatively harmless weapons as air rifles were taken.

Reliable sources reported, meanwhile, that arrests in the provinces outside Prague were aimed at a suspected underground, preparatory to trials which will attempt to link the underground to the Roman Catholic church.

NATIONALIZE SHOPS

While the purge arrests continued, new nationalized businesses sprouted in shops whose owners had been seized.

Several persons who went to trade with their former neighborhood druggists, bakers or book shops reported they found Communist-controlled national administrations had been installed.

The businesses had been seized by the government. In some cases it was reported that families of the former owners also had been thrown out of their apartments.

HIT MIDDLE CLASS

This lent substantiation to persistent reports that police action against small business men which engulfed most of Prague the last 10 days had been aimed at liquidating remnants of the middle class. Big enterprises had long since been nationalized.

City Murder Still Shrouded In Mystery

Mystery still shrouds the murder of Sam Kee, 52-year-old Chinese market gardener strangled Saturday night in [illegible] North Edmonton root cellar.

Today, 72 hours after the murder, city detectives have intensified their search for the slayers but with little success.

BODY IDENTIFIED

At preliminary inquest conducted by Dr. M M. Canton, provincial coroner, in Howard-McBride Funeral Home, yesterday, the slain man's body was identified by his brother-in-law, Chew Lung Kie of 9015-101 avenue.

Dr. Cantor officially informed the Jury death was caused by asphyxia, due to strangulation.

Police to date have questioned several persons but said no new clues have turned up in the robbery-motivated slaying.

A reward of $1,000 was posted yesterday for information leading to the arrest of the man's slayers.

Posters of reward were the Chinese Benevolent Association, $500; and City of Edmonton, $500.

Detective Inspector Bert Petheram today said police station had been flooded with calls since the posting of the $1,000 reward, by citizens reporting suspicious persons.

"Of course we're tracking down all tips turned in. One of them might be the real thing," he commented.

Youth Killed In Collision

A 20-year-old Alberta youth was instantly killed and his nineteen-year-old girl friend critically injured this morning when a truck collided with a parked truck just outside St. Paul, about 120 miles northeast of Edmonton.

Dead is Glen Cote, 20, of Lafonde and critically injured and in rural hospital is Rene Daniels, of St. Paul.

Accident took place when truck driven by Cote crashed into rear of a parked truck owned by S. Wrovel of Flat Lake.

RCMP refused to release further details pending investigation.

Strike Called Off

ROME, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A 24-hour strike of public transport workers was called off early today just before it was scheduled to begin.

TRYSTING in mist of Niagara Falls are Czech DP lovers Kitty Kleiner and Dennis Chrastansky. Border regulations forbid their meeting on either Canadian or American soil. She lives in States and he in Canada. They meet aboard the "Maid of the Mist," little sight-seeing ferry on Niagara River.

BLOW HOT AND COLD

Residents Reject Road After Clamoring for It

Gratitude is where you find it—but city council couldn't find much last night regarding certain local improvement proposals.

For years the city has been deluged with complaints about drainage and dust conditions on 66 street from 112 avenue to 118 avenue, which is unimproved.

Finally commissioners asked for and received council's permission to advertise the street for grading, gravelling and curbing, and did so.

Last night they reported that "the engineer's department has now received a protest from quite a number of residents between 112 and 113 avenues, but not nearly enough to constitute a sufficiently signed protest from the whole street."

Those objecting claim gravelling will result in undue dust, unpleasant odor and a traffic hazard.

Council agreed with commissioners that leaving out one block in the four concerned is not sensible, and accordingly approved authorization of the work, together with advertising for oiling to eliminate expected dust.

Commissioners' recommendation said 66 street is being used by trucks going from 112 avenue to packing plants, and "the people seem to be afraid that traffic will increase if the road is improved.

"On the other hand, hard surfacing of 65 street between 112 and 118 avenues has just been completed and it is the city's intention to pave 82 street from 112 to 118 avenue next year. These alternative routes should reduce north-bound traffic on 66 street."

Council also approved $12,267 expenditure on bituminous walks and miscellaneous curb construction in various sections of the city.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—It took some doing, but Bob Hope will get to see the world series. Then he hops off for a brief Canadian tour.

Recently the comic lost a battle with his air sponsors over whether he could record his show. Now the sponsor is relaxing the stand and will let Hope tape-record next Tuesday's program so he can take in the baseball classic.

Here's the log of Hollywood's best traveller: He left Monday night for Duluth, Minn., to do his air show. Return to Hollywood to record monologue and music for next week's show. Leave for New York Thursday night. (He'll miss two games). Record other half of show in New York, return here after series.

Then he plays shows in Toronto, Guelph, Ont., Montreal and Buffalo, N.Y., on successive days beginning Oct. 12. Then he'll return to Hollywood and start thinking up new places to go.

U.S. Senators Hear B.C. Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—(CP)—Premier Byron Johnson of British Columbia discussed informally today with two Pacific Coast Members of Congress proposals that United States negotiate with Canada for a survey of a proposed 1,400-mile railroad from Prince George, B.C., to Alaska.

Johnson told the congressmen—Senator Warren Magnuson (Dem., Wash.) and Representative Henry Jackson (Dem., Wash.)—the negotiations for the proposed agreement would have to be discussed by the United States state department with Canada's federal government. Johnson came here at the invitation of Senator Magnuson.

Magnuson told reporters later that if legislation authorizing President Truman to open negotiations with Canada is enacted, the negotiators will have to keep in mind that the B.C. provincial government already owns a railroad on part of the route. That is the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, which would become part of the proposed 1,400-mile line.

The B.C. government is planning to extend the Pacific Great Eastern which runs from Squamish to Quesnel, to a southern terminal in Vancouver and later to run it into the crop-rich Peace River country of B.C.

Oil Cited As Sign Canada on March

Great Era Of Progress Seen By Donald Gordon, CNR Head

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Donald Gordon said today Canada stands on the verge of "a great era of progress" and he hopes to help in developing the country's transportation system in the march forward.

The $30,000-a-year deputy governor of the Bank of Canada, slated to take over command of the CNR Jan. 1, told a press conference he is approaching the job with "an open mind, with no commitments and no entaglements."

Because of his financial background, reporters threw questions at him about the controversial financial structure of the railway which is heavily burdened with debt.

He said there has been no discussion between himself and the government on any phase of railway policy. Later he said he didn't want to discuss the debt question until he has had a chance to study it and discuss it with CNR officials.

The 47-year-old, 240-pound, six-foot-four native of Scotland said any details about his salary would have to come from the railway. But he didn't mind talking about the first job he held in Canada—at $8 a week in a Toronto box factory at the age of 13.

CITES ALBERTA OIL

Mr. Gordon was asked to elaborate about his prophecy of Canadian progress. "It's fairly obvious," he said. "There is a feeling in the air" rooted in Alberta oil, in iron ore, base metals, copper and other mineral developments.

A non-railroader, he viewed the CNR job as "a tremendous challenge" and essentially as "a terrific job in organization." Its ramifications touched not only railroading but every economic and industrial part of Canada and the head of the railway should be just as aware of the Canadian economy and industrial scene as of his railway.

He felt that his experience as wartime chairman of the prices board "gave me an extraordinary contact with every phase of our economic life." The CNR was "a very good operating organization" and that meant that "a man can go in and really do a job."

"If I didn't believe that," he said, "I wouldn't have taken the job."

Mr. Gordon said he was first approached by the CNR officially six days ago. He expressed a wish to make a "grass-roots inspection" of the entire system, hotels and all, as soon as possible after Jan. 1.

Profiteering Being Probed

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Oct. 12.—(CP)—A royal commission will be set up by the provincial government to investigate the cost-of-living in Newfoundland, Premier Smallwood told the legislature yesterday. The 28-member house resumed today after a six-week adjournment.

Mr. Smallwood gave figures to show that some Newfoundland retail stores were making as high as 175 per cent profit on certain foodstuffs. The lowest profit for the prices he quoted was 33 per cent and the average was more than 60.

The premier said the royal commission on prices would be invested with full authority to deal with all matters entering into costs of goods which affected the cost-of-living.

He added: "If we come to the conclusion that profiteering is taking place, we shall not be happy till we place the profiteers behind prison bars."

Calgary Again Near Miss

CALGARY, Oct. 12. — (CP) — Regulations laid down by the Canadian government in the bilateral air agreement of last June between Canada and the United States have resulted in Calgary being left off the extended route of Western Air Lines into Alberta, Terrill Drinkwater, Los Angeles, president of WAL, said here yesterday.

Mr. Drinkwater and officials of the company were in Calgary following a visit to Edmonton to arrange for the entry of the air line into that city "sometime before the end of the year, we hope."

Western now services Lethbridge from Great Falls, Mont., and Mr. Drinkwater said the Canadian government ruled that only one other port could be used. Edmonton was chosen.

planning a huge withdrawal toward southwest China for a final stand on the Asiatic continent.

Military commanders scraped together the last of their defence forces to brace a line 30 miles north of Canton in desperate efforts to hold open a funnel for the retreat westward.

The new Nationalist line was based on Yuntan, a station on the railroad 30 miles north of Canton. Rail authorities said trains were running no farther north than Yuntan.

ABANDON PORT

The withdrawl corridor apparently was being held open for troops from Swatow, big port some 200 miles eastward which the Nationalists appeared to be abandoning without a fight.

Private reports indicated the Communists have anticipated the Nationalist withdrawl into southwest China and were preparing to strike there before the Nationalists can dig in.

A mobile column of 2,000 Communists last reported by-passing Nationalist forces on the rail line north of Canton, was understood to have swung westward to slice across the Nationalist line of retreat from Canton.

MOVING SOUTH

At the same time another Communist column north of Canton, estimated at two armies of not less than 30,000 troops, continued to move south in force along the rail line.

A third and stronger Communist force striking west from Hengyang on the heels of Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi's retreating force of 300,000 Nationalists was reported to have reached the vicinity of Lingling, on the Hunan-Kwangsi border.

More ominous, however, were reports that the major Communist force which overran entire northwest China was showing signs of turning south against the wartime Nationalist capital of Chungking, deep in the Yangtze river gorges.

tion by the cabinet averted the walkout of railroad men across the country.

PREVIOUS SETTLEMENT

Outcome of the strike threat was a general wage increase of 17 cents an hour, estimated to cost the railways $76,500,000 a year.

Now, the international unions, representing employes not actually engaged in running trains, are asking a 40-hour week with wage increases to give the same take-home pay as now, plus an across-the-board additional increase of seven cents an hour.

At present, the 48-hour week prevails generally in almost all branches of the railways except for car and locomotive shops, where the work week is 44 hours.

40-HOUR WEEK

The CBRE is seeking the 40-hour week, plus a general 10-cents-an-hour wage increase.

Railways involved include the two transcontinental systems, the Ontario Northland Railway and the Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo Railway.

Communist Killed In Indian Prison

MADRAS, India, Oct. 12.—(Reuters)—One Communist prisoner was killed and one was severely injured yesterday when police guards at Cuddadlore Central Jail, 100 miles south of here, opened fire on defiant captives.

Sixteen other prisoners and 24 policemen were slightly injured.

East Germany Pledged To Support of Russia

BERLIN, Oct. 12.—(AP)—East Germany, Russia's newest satellite, pledged through its Communist government today to give unswerving loyalty to Russia.

The Communist prime minister, Otto Grotewohl, made the pledge as he and his cabinet were unanimously confirmed by the People's Chamber of the new Soviet-zone republic.

VOTE BACK YEAR

The 400 members of the chamber by a similar unanimous vote five days ago had set up the new state and prohibited Germans in the east zone from voting for at least another year.

In his induction speech, Grotewohl laid down a six-point program:

1. Pledging eastern Germany's "foreign policy" to that adopted by the Soviet satellite foreign ministers at the Warsaw conference in 1948.

2. Accepting the Oder-Neisse frontier, which ceded former German territory to Poland and Russia, as a final "peace border."

3. Developing trade with the "youngest peoples republic"—Communist China.

4. A new economic plan even more intensive than the current two-year plan, to get under way in 1950.

5. Abolition of goods rationing, except for meat and sugar, next year.

6. Equal rights for former Nazis who were not convicted of direct crimes, and a "fight with the sharpest forces of law against any revival of Nazism, militarism or Fascism."

Six of Grotewohl's 14 ministries—the important six—were allotted to Communists.

A pro-Soviet Christian Democrat, George Dertinger, was named foreign minister. But the vital ministries controlling interior affairs, planning, industry, foreign trade, education and justice went to members of Grotewohl's Socialist Unity (Communist) party.

Magnificent Ready

SAINT JOHN, N.B., Oct. 12.—(CP)—The Canadian aircraft carrier Magnificent is expected to leave dry dock here Saturday. Since the big vessel entered the dry dock July 20, workmen have fitted new plates to her hull, repairing damage caused when she ran aground on a reef off the Nova Scotia coast last June.

Free immunization against whooping cough and diphtheria is available from all hospitals, medical officers and nursing centres in Newfoundland.

Plane Forced Back

HONOLULU, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Marshall Mars, huge, four-engined United States navy flying boat, was forced back to Honolulu on a flight to the Pacific by engine trouble, it was announced yesterday.

Reject Railway Bill

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—A measure to compel railways to submit partially to municipal smoke-abatement laws in urban areas was defeated tonight in the commons. The house declined to give second reading to the bill, sponsored by Rodney Adamson (PC–York West), after Transport Minister Chevrier said the government could not accept it.

PLANNING FUTURE are drafting students Al Evenson, 7628-106 street and Myron Luchkovich, 10763-95 street. Both work for city manufacturing and wholesale firm. They were among 254 students of all ages who registered last night in new $3 million Victoria Composite High School.

WHY NAG your husband for that new dress, asks Mrs. J. F. Hunt, 10955-80 avenue. She instructs make-it-yourself designing and dressmaking class.

NEW LIFE in Canada is being started by 17-year-old Steve Anast, 9903-84 avenue. He arrived last year from shell-shattered northern Greece. Last night he was one of 102 new Canadians registering. Here he receives instruction from teacher Don Cameron, 10841-123 street.

Classes in Basic English Aid 102 in New Life Here

By Stan Burke

Bulletin Staff Reporter

Curly-haired Steve Anast is starting life over again.

A year ago the stocky 17-year-old Greek boy arrived from his war torn home in northern Greece. He is typical of the 102 'new Canadians' who last night registered at Victoria high school for night classes in basic English.

Last year Steve arrived in Edmonton from his home in Komotine, a shell-shattered town in northern Greece, near the Albanian border.

FAMILY STUDIES

He tells of cowering with his family in the cellar of their home as the Communist rebels poured shells into the town. The house next door was destroyed by the barrage but the Anast's escaped.

Another time he recalls walking in the street with his brother. They heard the whistle of a shell. His brother threw him into the doorway of a store just before the shell burst in the street a few yards away.

Far from the roar of artillery fire the Anast family is settled in their new home at 9903-84 avenue. Already Steve's father, two older brothers and a sister have taken basic English courses as they start their new life in the New World.

WILL CONTINUE CLASSES

One brother is still in the army in Greece. Steve tells in his halting English, but the family hopes he will soon join them here.

Steve is going to keep right on at night school and some day hopes to get himself a job in the automobile industry.

Night school is assisting him in making a new life. But for hundreds of native-born Canadians, the courses in everything from drafting to dressmaking may be equally important. They can lead to a new life by providing new openings and new opportunities.

CONFERENCE

President of Parkhill Bedding Co. Ltd., R. H. Parkhill, Winnipeg, is in the city conferring with local distributors.

HOME SOON

Police Chief Reg Jennings is expected back at his desk either this Friday or Monday morning. This was learned today from Deputy Chief Alex Riddell who said Mr. Jennings is now enroute home from the east where he attended a meeting of chief constables in Windsor, Ont.

IT'S DIFFERENT

Delegation of nearly 40 persons descended on the legislative building this morning, tramped through the marble halls, visited ministerial offices and viewed the legislative chamber.

Unlike most delegations which visit the building, they had no complaints to bring to official ears and no concessions to ask of various government heads.

Members of the delegation were students of social study classes at Spruce Avenue school.

COULD BE?

Alderman Fred Mitchell last night raised speculative eyebrows that he might resign his seat and contest the mayoralty race.

When council meeting broke up, he followed Ald. George Gleave's example of removing a stack of files from his desk and toting them home. Such procedure is practically unknown except when an alderman is taking final leave of his desk.

Reward Money Turned Over To City Police

Reward money totalling $500 will be turned over to city police for distribution by hotelman Brant Matthews.

Sum was posted after Mr. Matthews was robbed of $8,000 in daring daylight robbery Saturday morning on city streets.

Yesterday, the two small boys who found the satchel on Grierson Hill were each given $100 by the hotelman.

"This is not part of the reward but my personal gratitude to Eddie Zrubak and Johnny Logan," said Mr. Matthews.

He added that the $500 originally posted would be turned over to Detective Inspector Bert Petheram for distribution.

Pioneer Dies In Hospital

Old time resident of Edmonton, Mrs. James East, 73, died in the General Hospital yesterday after a brief illness.

A resident of Edmonton since 1907, Mrs. East was the widow of James East, well-known city alderman for 18 years who predeceased her in 1940.

She was active in labor party and CCF circles, and a member of the WBA Lodge and Dorcus Circle.

She is survived by one son, Edsel; two grandchildren, Mrs. J. E. Barr and Marnie East, and two great-grandchildren.

Military Notes

Loyal Edmonton Regiment will parade at the Prince of Wales Armoury at 8 p.m. Thursday. Battle dress, berets, web belts, boots and puttees will be worn.

No. 36 CCS RCAMC parade at Prince of Wales Armoury Friday at 8 p.m. Battle dress, web belts and puttees to be worn.

Court Session Sees 26 Divorces Granted

Twenty-six divorces were granted in supreme court yesterday by Mr. Justice C. C. McLaurin. Thirteen were decrees absolute and 13 were provisional decrees.

Divorces were granted to Vivian E. Kerr from Angus S. Kerr; Helen E. Calhoon from Lester A. Calhoon; Virgilean A. Kirkland from Morley G. Kirkland; Albert Ziola from Bertha Ziola; Agatha Mortensen from Carl O. Mortensen; Hilda M. Coffyne from John B. Coffyne; Roman Frederick Witschen from Irene Witschen; Douglas N. Goodman from Eleanor Goodman; Isabel Grace Peters from Joseph Larry Peters; Bruce E. Jewett from Mary Jewett; Allan R. Nelson from Barbara Jean Nelson; Charlotte May Redding from Ernest L. Redding; and Emily Linnick from Frank Linnick.

Provisional decrees nisi were granted to Wilfred J. Bryant from Sylvia M. Bryant; Mellita Patton from Charles William Patton.

FRIENDSHIP TRAIN LEAVES TOMORROW

Edmonton's Friendship Train leaves for Lloydminster at 8.30 a.m. tomorrow with more than 70 goodwill ambassadors aboard.

Stops will be made at Vegreville, Vermilion and Lloydminster on the outward trip, and at Myrnam, Willingdon, Innisfree, Kitscoty and Bruderheim on the return the following day.

Chamber of Commerce functions are planned at most stops, and Lloydminster Board of Trade will tender a banquet Thursday night, with a tour of the oil fields Friday morning.

Defence Plea Backfires

An Edmonton woman defended herself too strenuously when she appeared in police court last month.

She managed to have the charge against her dismissed, but the Crown decided she strayed from the truth in her denials. As a result she was found guilty of perjury in supreme court yesterday.

She is Irene Nelson, no fixed address, who was charged with assault in police court Sept. 8.

In her first evidence she denied the charge.

Furthermore, she denied being at the scene of the assault and claimed she had not spoken to the complainant for over a month.

Mr. Justice Boyd McBride found her evidence was in "entire disregard of the truth."

She will appear Friday for sentence.

Alberta is Canada's main oil producing area. In 1948 it produced 11,000,000 barrels or 88.5 per cent of the total domestic production.

Final Council Meet Has Busy Session

A proposed bylaw dealing with functions of the recreation commission was last night referred by city council to its bylaws committee, after Mayor Harry Ainlay vainly suggested it be passed soon so budgets can be prepared.

A Sept. 23 deadline had come and gone, with no objections being registered, said the mayor. Only actual change it would effect is that it gives the commission the right to employ staff—a function it has actually fulfilled since its inception, he said.

Council decided to reserve from sale the triangle of city land from 102 to 106 streets between Kingsway and 111 avenue, after commissioners requested a directive on purchase requests.

★ ★ ★

No license offsets against business tax will be allowed next year. Council agreed to finance committee's suggestion to that effect.

★ ★ ★

Both Mr. Justice O'Connor's report on the Northern Hardware building fire, and the Western Canada Underwriters' Association report on fire protection, were referred to incoming city council.

Ald. George Gleave thought it the responsibility of present council, but that it would need more than one meeting, and later said it should be referred to the new body since it is up to it to carry out recommendations in the reports.

★ ★ ★

Edmonton's new five-year agreement with Calgary Power Co. slid under the wire with council's blessing last night.

Slight changes had been made in definition of "available spare electrical energy" and the times it shall be made available.

Other change involved terms which neither party is expected to or will be legally bound to operate its plant in a manner inconsistent with approved operating practice.

Vandals Causing Aerial Hazards

Approach Lights Broken By Slingshots, Air Rifles

Vandals with slingshots or BB guns are creating a serious hazard for aerial traffic at Edmonton Municipal airport.

Several amber lights marking approach to southwest runway have been smashed in the past two days, Airport Manager Capt. James Bell reports.

Stating he believes destruction of lights to be the work of youngsters, Capt. Bell said:

"Breaking of these lights is a very serious thing. Lights extend for a quarter of a mile beyond runway limits as a guide to pilots coming in for landings.

"The particular amber-colored light is also very hard to obtain and quite costly."

Lights are strung from poles about the height of the average telephone pole. Destruction was discovered yesterday when poles were being painted.

Building Total Still Mounts

Two $25,000 building permits today helped the year's total toward the $32.5 million mark.

George Falling Supply Co., Ltd., took out a $25,000 permit for a masonry and stucco warehouse at 10823 Kingsway.

N. M. Dakus was granted a $25,000 permit for a commercial garage to be built at 14002 Stony Plain Road.

HSA Group Plan Program

Full season of activities for adults and youngsters is planned by the Mill Creek Home and School Association, a general meeting of the group was told last night.

About 100 residents of the area attended the meeting.

The Association will sponsor Ritchie Fri-Teens' Friday night dances at the Mill Creek school, the meeting decided.

Adult study groups are planned to study literature, school curriculum problems, and the responsibility and function of education.

Special speakers will address the study groups.

An old-time dance is planned for November, and films will be shown at various winter meetings.

At the conclusion of last night's meeting at which president Kurt Surbeck was chairman, social committee convened by Mrs. A. E Saunders served refreshments.

Where You Are Always Sure of Quality

Stifling Civic Progress

The action of the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners in forbidding the submission of money bylaws to the Edmonton burgesses on November 2 is a striking illustration of a good system gone sour.

The Board of Public Utilities Commissioners functions under the Public Utilities Act and is the creation of the Alberta legislature. Its members are appointed by the lieutenant-governor-in-council.

It is charged with passing on all municipal borrowing.

That is to say, no municipality, large or small, may borrow money without the consent of the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners.

There is no appeal from its decisions so long as it exercises its functions within its legal limits.

In short, a municipality may appeal to the courts against a decision of the Board if that decision is illegal under the act which establishes the Board.

But a municipality may not appeal against a decision of the Board which is an error of judgment.

To put it bluntly, the Board may be as obstructive and unreasonable as it likes provided it does not contravene the provisions of the Public Utilities Act.

The function of the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners is useful, benign and essential so far as smaller municipalities are concerned.

Sometimes the officials of those smaller municipalities are inexperienced. The Board makes its long experience available to them in matters of finance which involve borrowing.

But when a civic corporation like that of Edmonton, consisting of 140,000 intelligent people and financial assets running into the tens of millions, is forced by the law to accept this advice, that civic corporation is placed in an equivocal position.

The intelligence and judgment of its burgesses and its elected leaders are required to subordinate themselves to the decisions of a body of no greater intelligence and judgment.

In other words, the negative vote of a small appointed board is more powerful than the positive vote of all the burgesses and all the elected city council.

This is not a democratic conception. And it may lead, as it is leading in the case of the auditorium, swimming pool and market bylaws, to a frustration of the civic spirit and a stultification of civic progress.

A city of the size and importance of Edmonton should be able to administer its own financial affairs.

There is no democracy in civic government when a small appointed body, from whose judgment there is no appeal, can inferentially tell the council and burgesses that they are not sufficiently adult to decide what money they may and may not borrow.

Professional Crime on Increase

The ruthless brutality which marked the murder of Sam Kee Saturday night or Sunday morning bears all the marks of professional crime.

The amateur criminal seldom demonstrates such relentless violence in the commission of a robbery, which appears to have been the purpose of this murder.

This killing, taken in conjunction with the bold daylight hold-up of a hotel proprietor on an open street Saturday noon, indicates the jeopardy in which Edmonton life and property stands if these offences should mark the beginning of a crime wave, as they could very easily do.

It means that Edmonton's police department must be brought without delay to the very highest peak of efficiency.

And that means that Edmonton's police employees and their salaries must be materially increased.

Many Edmonton citizens have given no anxious thought to the police situation here because Edmonton's force, absurdly small as it is, has done a magnificent job.

Good men and fine administration plus inordinate luck have kept this city comparatively free of major crime.

But luck does not hold out forever. And a few good men cannot possibly do the work of an adequate number of good men.

If the scene of the robbery on Saturday had been adequately patrolled, there might have been no crime.

If police strength were at its proper level, Sam Kee might yet be alive.

With per captia police protection lower than it was in 1920 and with Edmonton constables paid from seven to sixty dollars per month less than constables in other western cities, this city is taking a frightful chance with the increasing wave of crime.

New Industry for Edmonton

News that U.K. steel interests are looking to Alberta as a site for possible expansion does not come as a surprise to us. We have known for some time that several of the largest steel and chemical processing plants in England have been waiting for news of the raw materials and other factors which would lead them to make a more thorough investigation on the spot.

This is excellent news for Edmonton, as at the moment our economy is almost entirely dependant upon agriculture. With the large increase in population occasioned by the boom in oil, we are likely to find ourselves very top heavy when the oil has been found and piped away to the east and west. As an industry, it is not likely to provide any great facilities for employment once the initial drilling and pipe line work is complete.

Edmonton must look well into the future, and the advent of heavy industries is not only a necessary must; it is something which must be given the highest priority, if our growing population is to be safeguarded for future employment.

We have all the basic raw materials required in bulk to produce iron, the iron ore is not so very far away, and it would pay to bring it to the cheap and abundant fuel facilities existing here.

In addition we have openings for the chemical and alkali industries as well as for manufacturing glass, tanning hides, and a variety of other trades and industries.

Edmonton needs more industry and should go all out to get it.

Rubinoff Review

Editor, Bulletin—I was very much interested in the report of your music critic on the Rubinoff concert; likewise in the letter to you by 'Marc' criticizing the same report.

I fail to agree with 'Marc' on the stand he takes.

Although at times I did find your music critic, in my estimation, too severe and fault-finding in non-essentials, minor errors, etc., I must applaud him wholeheartedly on his Rubinoff report.

It seems to be the opinion of some not-too-well informed performers and impresarios from south of the line that if they or their proteges have slipped down the ladder of art, and are unable to command sufficient attention (and money) in their home country, they can unload themselves upon the immature and gullible tastes of the savages north of the line, for example, Edmonton, and still make money.

I am glad that your music critic has let them know that we are quite well able to screen the chaff from the wheat for ourselves; that we can still differentiate the worthy from the unworthy, despite the staggering amount of ballyhoo employed to make the ridiculous and contemptible appear wonderful.

Distribute Abundance

Editor, Bulletin: With all due respect to the learned comments by statesmen and economists on the causes and consequences of the British "dollar crisis", I wish to make an observation as a common garden variety dollar earner in Canada.

It seems to me that, perchance, the learned gentlemen at Washington have overlooked an important factor, namely, dollar shortage among millions of Canadian and American potential consumers of British goods or any other goods, for that matter.

Is it not possible that the difficulty of selling more British cars, textiles, cutlery and excelent Scotch whisky may be due to the fact that too many Canadians and Americans receive too few dollars out of their ample national income? While per capita national income is about $4000 for Canadian breadwinners, some 13½% of Canadians receive less than $1000 per year. Majority of Canadians earn less than $2000 per year. Then there are the thousands of unemployed and under-employed and the pensioners whose incomes are barely sufficient to sustain life, leave alone to buy any British goods.

It is the same across the line. There are over 4 million unemployed and millions of workers earning a bare living. All suffering from a dollar shortage. Of course, there is a minority of specially privileged people who receive an overdose of dollars out of the national income, but they are too few to consume sufficient goods to keep trade flowing.

Perhaps there is no dollar shortage at all, Mr. Editor. Maybe the problem is one of distributing an abundance of dollars among sufficient number of effective consumers.

Supposing less of Canadian and American national income was distributed to the minority which already has enough and to spare and more of it was distributed through the pay envelopes to the millions of potential consumers—would that, perhaps, make possible greater consumption of British goods or any other goods, thus solving the so-called "dollar crisis"?

WALTER MENTZ.
Balmoral Block.

Smiles

A young husband realized that it was time to start saving money. He decided that he would not use the bus any more when returning from his office. He ran behind the bus, arrived home gasping, and said to his wife: "Dear, I saved 10 cents this evening by running behind the bus!"

"You're a fool," his wife shouted. "You could have saved half a dollar by running home behind a taxi!"

The energetic travelling salesman, eager to see a big business executive, finally bludgeoned his way past the various secretaries at the end of a rush day in the office.

"Salesman, eh?" snorted the big man. "Do you know my secretaries have thrown out thirteen salesmen already today?"

"Yes, sir," said the salesman. "I'm them."

Restaurants Need Grade System

The other day while driving through a town in southern Alberta we decided to stop for lunch, but the question was, "Where to go?"

Like many towns, this one had a number of cafes. One was definitely out. It was obviously poorly kept. But there were two modern-looking cafes. Both appeared nice. It seemed like a toss-up until we noticed one of them was displaying a card showing that it was a "Grade A" cafe. That settled it. "Grade A" is the top grade in cafes of all kinds. As a result, the proprietor obtained some business he might have missed and we obtained an excellent meal that we might have missed. The next time I am in that town I will be stopping to eat there again.

Health Inspections

The unfortunate angle is that there is no compulsory grading of cafes in Alberta. The health department makes inspections. If conditions are too bad, it can now close the establishment without too much delay. But if conditions are good, there is no fixed system of letting the public know about it.

Some time ago members of the department tried a voluntary system of grading cafes, but that was far from complete. An establishment that qualified for top grade might be glad to display the official card.

A cafe that could not qualify certainly would not be prepared to display a "B" or "C" card in order to warn customers of its shortcomings. Yet there is no single thing that turns visitors against a town as completely as does an experience in a poor cafe.

The most puzzling aspect of this whole business is why the authorities are so loath to provide a grading system. It is done with tourist camps. It is done in the case of many foods. It is recognized to an increasing degree in many retail trades. Why is it not done in the case of cafes and hotel dining rooms?

As a matter of fact, if the Provincial Government would establish a grading system for cafes it would not only prove of great assistance to visitors, but would also accomplish the department's purpose. Public grading of such establishments would prove a compelling reason for proprietors to keep their establishments in top class.

One objection raised to such a proposal is that it tends to become bureaucratic. But that does not necessarily follow. It might be bureaucratic if the department were to classify cafes on general grounds because that would involve too many factors.

The department is already charged with the responsibility of maintaining adequate health conditions. The department could provide a grading system based entirely upon health standards in the establishment.

It would not mean any change from the present situation because minimum health requirements are already established. Those who fail to maintain the minimum standard are likely to be closed.

Grading System

However, there is a vast difference between minimum standards and those maintained by many establishments. Thus those who just stay above the minimum would be "Class C." Those who did considerably better could be "Class B" and those establishments which went the limit in cleanliness and service would be "Class A."

Such a classification would not tell the whole story. But it would be an indication and it would serve to assist visitors in selecting the kind of cafe they want. It would certainly be appreciated by the travelling public.

But it would do more than that. It would provide an incentive to keep an establishment as far above the minimum as possible and it would reward those that did.

Jack Scott

Wearied By Wails Of Super-Patriots

Well, now, isn't it high time some little, ordinary pipsqueak Canadian like you or me got reluctantly to his feet and volunteered the information that there's really nothing terribly wrong with us? Or, at any rate nothing that a new flag or national anthem would cure overnight?

The bombardment in recent weeks has been something fierce. Hardly a day goes by that some self-appointed patriot doesn't put the Canadian character on the operating table and submit it to a complete autopsy, with grim results.

There is always some shrill bozo warning us that we're complete boobs; no national pride, no understanding of our national heritage, no aggressive, glowing dynamic "Canadianism," no this and that.

Why, only this week Mr. John Fisher, the noted roving reporter of the CBC, was up on his feet, grasping us all firmly by the lapels, and trumpeting that we have "an apathy toward national unity," and an "indifference to Canadian self-development," and that "Canadians generally have no conception of the magnitude of the country in which they live." In other words Fisher has it, but we ain't.

Now John is one of the nicest most sincere young men you could hope to meet, but that's no excuse. You can't admire the guy who keeps beating you about the head merely because he thinks he's doing the right thing.

Fisher and his pals simply are not going to be happy until they have us all wearing suits of maple leaves, leading around small beavers on a leash and wearing a label reading "I am A Canadian." And, if it's all the same to John, I'd rather stay out of the act.

Silk And Song

I'm inclined to get testy on this subject because I fancy myself as a more or less typical Canadian. I've done some roving about the country, myself, and it knocks me out. I love it. I am as apathetic about Canada as I would be about Ingrid Bergman if she walked in that door.

What's more I feel Canadian. I don't feel American. I don't feel British. I feel Canadian. And if I don't make the proper noises, that's my own business. I certainly don't want anybody telling me the kind of noise I ought to make.

This constant agitation about a national flag and such-and-such a version of "O Canada," for instance. It leaves me cold. Regularly once a week or more I get visits from earnest men and women and even delegations asking me to use my column to push these "symbols of national unity." They're usually quite shocked when I tell them I don't think it's worth the time or suggest that they stop worrying about a design for a flag and concentrate on a design for a better world.

Look, they can adopt any version of "O Canada" they like and it won't make me feel any more like a Canadian and I won't know the words any more than I do now . . . or any more than the next guy. I will mumble them like I always did and wish they would get on with the program. I don't know the words to "Take Me Out To The Ball Game," either, but that doesn't stop me from enjoying myself up in the bleachers.

And the flag business. Far from wanting to get on the band wagon for our very own flag, I think there's too dam' much worrying about national flags as it is. I don't believe that a hunk of silk on a mast is all that's stopping us from all those high-sounding objectives. Sure, symbols have their places, but they've never yet held anything together if it was falling apart. Loyalty is in the heart, not in the silk.

Why, the way these visitors of mine talk you'd think we couldn't stand up on our own two feet and call ourselves Canadian unless we have just the right choice of words in a song or just the right pattern on a flag. Fisher himself says that the lack of a Canadian flag "frustrates" some Canadians. I don't believe that, but if it's true, those people don't need a flag. They need a psychiatrist.

Self Love

In the analysis of the Canadian character there is always the opinion that we are suffering from an "inferiority-complex." Are you getting as fed up with that as I am? It simply means that we don't toot our own horn or beat our own drum and, to me, that's not a weakness, but one of our shining strengths.

You just have to glance south of the border to see what a mess you can get without that modesty or reserve or whatever it is that Canadians have. Would these home-grown critics like us to ape the great "I Yam An Amurrican" extravaganza of the United States? It seems no more attractive to me than any other hopped-up nationalism. Surely you can have a deep and decent loyalty without having every two-bit comedian ramming it down your throat, without all that self-adoration and my-country-right-or-wrong, without "selling" yourself to yourself night or day.

Myself, I'll take the Canadian who abhors any self-glorification, who has enough sense of balance to look outside his own borders once in a while; yes, even to underestimate himself now and then. The loyalty is there when the chips are down (it is in any country, good or bad, with or without flags), but it requires no bunting or brass bands or the exhortations of professional patriots.

SITTING ON THE FENCE

By Nathaniel Gubbins

Ask Gubbins Clinic About Anything

Except for the reader who has advised me to go and drown myself, all reasonable requests from correspondents will be carefully considered on their merits.

Therefore, the two girls who have asked for futher advice from Dr. Gubbins, the notorious Fleet-street quack, shall not be disappointed

On this occasion, Dr. Gubbins will deal with popular beliefs and grandmothers' sayings handed down from generation to generation, and answer if they are false or true.

Pre-Natal Influences

Many country peoeple look like pigs, rabbits and sheep. This is because their mothers were accustomed to seeing these anmals frequently before they were born.

False—You might as well say that all fisherwives' children look like cods and haddocks, or that all kennel-maids' children look like Airdales or Pekingese.

Although it is well known that many women in hunting circles look like horses in bowler hats, this is not because their mothers were frequently seeing horses, but because their mothers and fathers and grandmothers and grandfathers looked like horses, and probably were.

Fish is a brain food.

False—Anybody who thinks he will become more intelligent if he eats more fish is such an obvious fool that no amount of fish, or any other kind of food, would make any difference to a mind like that.

It is true that there is phosphorus in fish and phosphorus in the brain tissue but that does not mean that if you swallow a pound if plaime it will go straight to your head and turn you into a genius.

If you are born a fool you will remain a fool, even if you swallowed a whale.

Note—Don't write in and tell me that a whale isn't fish.

Stuff a cold and starve a fever.

False—To stuff or starve yourself at any time is either disgusting gluttony or neurotic self-pity. To do either when you are ill is plain nonsense. If your own inside can't tell you what you need, no doctor can—not even a real one.

And as you can't stuff yourself at any time unless you are in the black market and you have been half-starved for years, I advise you to eat anything you can grab hold of.

My husband and I have had little education and have never taught ourselves anything. This means that our children will not have much intelligence.

False—Education has nothing to do with intelligence. Although it can, and does, help a clever man, it can do nothing at all for a ninny. The common belief that clever children are always born of clever parents, and the reverse, is also fallacy.

The world has always been full of the ne'er-do-well sons of successful men, not always because the sons are stupid, but because life is made easy for them. So they don't try hard enough. Most people don't try until faced with disaster

On the other hand, history shows that the majority of exceptionally clever men have been the sons of ordinary, half-educated people.

But don't get excited about this. It's a million to one that your children will be fools like you.

Concerning Deportment

Carrying a weight on the head improves the carriage.

TRUE. It is obvious that to carry a weight on the head you must keep your neck straight and your shoulders back.

But you can't walk about the streets with pots and pans on your head without causing a sensation. And don't experiment with china ornaments. They're scarce enough as it is.

★ ★ ★

Fat men are jolly.

FALSE. Fat men appear to be jolly because it is expected of them. They are also trying to laugh it off. But they are really embarrassed by their big tummies and often cry themselves to sleep at night.

★ ★ ★

Carrots are good for the eyesight.

TRUE. Any good food is good for the eyes, just as any good food is good for any other part of the body. But if you imagine that carrots will give you the eyes of an eagle you are as foolish as the man who thinks fish will turn him into a genius.

The idea grew up during the war when the ministry of food had a glut of carrots. In order to persuade the gullible public to buy them, it was stated that night fighter pilots ate carrots to enable hem to see better in the dark, the implication being that carrot eaters would see better in the blackout. Night fighter pilots preferred eggs and bacon.

★ ★ ★

If I chew every mouthful thirty times my digestion will improve.

FALSE. You will not only look a great fool doing this, but you might easily lose count, get into a panic and choke yourself.

The healthiest men I know bolt their food like beasts. They may be socially unpopular, but not so unpopular as you—much too busy with your champing jaws and mental arithmetic to answer a civil question.

Fan Mail

This week's complaint from my persistent and critical correspondent who always begins his letters "Dear Pig" is as follows:

Dear Pig,

Not content with making libellous attacks on bishops what are the mainstay of our civilization I see you are now advising young men to become failures. What do you think would happen to the world if there was no bishops and we was all failures?

★ ★ ★

Well, dear pig, I will try to tell you.

First, I would like to point out that only one bishop was mentioned and second, that nothing libellous about him was written here. Our law department would see to that.

Now, let us examine the social scene of a world full of failures and no bishops in it.

Although I am aware that you won't agree with me, I believe there would be a noticeable change for the better, because the two main causes of trouble, bishops and successful men, would be removed.

Even a casual glance at the pages of history would enable an astute and critical man like yourself to see that the ordinary man has never caused trouble without instigation.

He has never murdered anybody except for personal reasons, but for thousands of years he has committed mass murder for a religious or political idea (there isn't much difference) or because a successful man, or group of successful men, wanted more trade.

He has also been forced to take sides between rival gangsters who lived in feudal castles (all successful men in their way) and murdered and died for them.

I am not saying he didn't enjoy it, or thought he was going to enjoy it. There was a time when war was honorable and greatly enjoyed by ardent, hot-blooded young men.

But if no bishop had ever told him that one religion was wrong and another right, and if no successful man had told him that one community of people was wrong and another right, it would never have happened.

So much for your bishops and successful men, my dear pig. Without them we might have peace for ever and ever.

But to soothe your wounded feelings about bishops, I think I ought to add that they are almost harmless now.

They make occasional remarks which are hardly noticed by my gimlet eyes searching for silly things in newspapers; and unless they interfere in politics which they frequently do, but with little success these days, they can't send anybody to war or less the bloodstained banners.

In fact, they are rapidly becoming failures like the failures you despise.

Time Out

WANTED: A LINCOLN

Wanted: a kind soul to emancipate some of Edmonton's junior hockey players in the Abraham Lincoln tradition.

For there's a couple of kids on the local landscape who desire to play hockey in the Western Canada Junior Hockey League.

But they can't because the club with whom they performed last winter—Edmonton Athletic Club, to be exact—won't grant them a release.

So until the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association comes along and liberates them they are stuck up here in the northern hockey wilds.

★ ★ ★

DICKSON AND THOMAS

The youths concerned are Bruce Dickson and Eldor Thomas, highly regarded in Alberta junior circles and evidently coveted by the EACs.

Currently, they are drilling with Medicine Hat of the WCJHL. If they don't obtain releases before the week-end, they will miss the league inaugural.

To date EAC officials have remained adamant, saying "You either play with us, or you don't play anywhere. So there".

Last week young Thomas' dad requested AAHA president Harold Brandeth to have his astute body investigate the case. But the wheels of justice haven't begun to roll due to Brandeth's absence on a holiday jaunt to California.

(Very nice down there this time of year, I hear.)

★ ★ ★

UNMITIGATED SELFISHNESS

On the face of the matter the EAC appear to be displaying nothing more or less than unmitigated selfishness in withholding releases from Thomas and Dickson.

Why should the kids be prevented from playing with a better club in the better league, if they are good enough to do so?

No reason at all.

Up here we haven't even got a junior league yet. Everyone surmises, of course, that Edmonton's four athletic clubs will band together in a shoddy four-team circuit again this winter.

But nothing official in this regard has been announced by the Edmonton and District Hockey Association.

And everybody knows that when such a league is formed it will be of junior A calibre in name only.

Therefore, what have EAC to gain by keeping Thomas and Dickson under lock and key?

★ ★ ★

PLAY FOR PRETZELS

Good hockey players cannot prove themselves in the kind of junior hockey we're going to see here this winter.

They won't have to hustle, and won't in fact, feel like hustling.

Why should they?

After all, they'll only get paid in pretzels, and will be playing before pitifully small crowds.

Only by competing against top-flight athletes are young hockey players going to buckle down and carve a profitable hockey career for themselves. They can't afford to spend their formative years debbling in junior hockey as it has been played here in recent winters.

Dickson and Thomas can play in a better league all right—if they get liberateed.

And in their case it looks like the AAHA had better pull an Abraham Lincoln.

HOMECOMING cup of tea from wife Doris is Eskimo coach Annis Stukus' reward for having stopped Regina Roughriders 12-11. Big Stuke arrived home last night with 35 tired players who won one and lost one on road. They go right back at it in Calgary Saturday night.

Yanks Still Best Team On Post-Series Paper

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—(UP)—Winding up the World Series for another year, a recapitulation of the five-game frolic shows that the Yankees, as winners, naturally walked off with most of the individual honors.

But the Dodgers captured four spots on a World Series all-star team.

Picking the best man at each position, strictly off their records in the classic, your lineup would be:

Catcher—Roy Campanella, Brooklyn.
First Base—Tommy Henrich, Yankees.
Second Base—Gerry Coleman, Yankees.
Shortstop—Pee-Wee Reese, Brooklyn.
Third Base—Bobby Brown, Yankees.
Centre Field—Joe DiMaggio, Yankees.
Right Field—Gene Hermanski, Dodgers.
Pitchers—Allie Reynolds and Joe Page, Yankees, and Preacher Roe, Dodgers.

Reynolds Best Pitcher

Reynolds, the Indian fast ball artist, was the classic's best pitcher. He won the first game, a two-hit shutout, and saved the fourth for Ed Lopat by pitching hitless ball for three and a third innings. In 12 1/3 innings he struck out 14 and gave only four walks. Second honors went to Roe, the skinny southpaw from Arkansas, who hurled a six-hit shutout for Brooklyn's only win. Page saved the third and fifth games, giving six hits in nine innings and yielding two runs.

Campanella easily was the outstanding catcher. He hit .267, a good mark for this "pitchers' series." Defensively he was terrific. Phil Rizzuto, picked off third by Campanella, rated the burly Dodger as "the best I've ever seen."

Brooklyn's Gil Hodges gave Henrich a close race for first base honors but Ohio Tommy won out on his hitting, batting .263 against Hodges' .235 as well as winning the opener with his round trip blast.

Coleman Stood Out

At second. Coleman easily stood out over Jackie Robinson, hitting .250 and driving home four important runs as he decided one game. Robinson hit only .188. Coleman had three doubles and four RBI's; Robinson one double and two RBI's. Afield, each had one error.

Rizzuto held an edge afield over Reese but the latter more than compensated for his one error by putting the "Scooter" in the deep shade at bat.

Reese hit .316 with two runs, six hits, one double, a homer and two runs batted in. Rizzuto batted only .167, scoring two runs and knocking in only one with his three singles.

At third it was Brown all alone among the five who saw service. The golden boy in four games hit .500, top mark for the series. In 12 at bats he scored four runs and knocked in five with his six hits, one a double and two triples.

Far From Brilliant

The fielders, while adequate, were far from brilliant. Woodling, in left for three games, hit .400, three of his four blows being doubles, and scored four runs. Hermanski in right field batted .308 for four games, getting four hits, one of them a triple, and drove home two runs. That made them the standouts in their respective sections of real estate.

In centre field you have to go for the ailing DiMaggio although Duke Snider was brilliant defensively. The Duke made several breathtaking catches—but so did DiMag, playing on nerve alone.

Snider outhit DiMaggio, .143 to .111, but Joe had an edge with his two RBI's and one homer. The Clipper struck out five times, but Snider fanned eight times, tying a record set by Rogers Hornsby.

FRIDAY

Ez Charles Favored In Heavy Bout

By Ross Newland

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12—(AP)—Although his workouts have been unimpressive, at times dull, Ezzard Charles was a prohibitive favorite today to retain his National Boxing Association heavyweight title against Pat Valentino, Friday night.

Latest odds quoted the Cincinnati Negro as the 4-to-1 choice. He may be an even greater favorite when the pair climb into the ring at the San Francisco cow palace for their 15-round match.

In contrast to Charles' somewhat listless training efforts, the San Francisco challenger has stormed through rousing drills. Valentino holds the California State championship. He is a powerful body puncher.

Training camp observers contend Valentino has a better chance to win than the odds would indicate.

It will be Charles' second defence of the title he won in the two-man elimination with Jersey Joe Walcott to succeed Joe Louis. Charles beat Gus Lesnevich handily in his first defence of the NBA recognized crown.

The first heavyweight championship fight in this area in 40 years already has an advance sale of approximately $120,000. Tickets amounting to $50,000 are still available.

Charles will spot his rival about six pounds. He weighed 180½ pounds today, compared to 186½ for Valentino.

British Soccer Teams to Tour

LONDON, Oct. 12—(CP)—The Football Association today announced acceptance of an invitation to send a team to play 10 matches in Canadian cities next summer.

Leading British players will be chosen to make the trip, the announcement said.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 12—(AP)—Hollywood stars packed away the Governor's Cup alongside their Pacific Coast League pennant by drubbing San Diego 8-4 for the fourth straight time in the series.

Arise Wins Ten Grand

TORONTO, Oct. 12—(CP)—Arise, a three-year-old colt owned by the Addison Stable, yesterday won the $10,000-added Canadian championship, feature event of the fall racing meeting at suburban Long Branch track. Arise covered the 1 1-16 miles in 1:46 4-5.

Piloted by jockey Doug Dobson of Edmonton, Arise beat out Montana Sands by four lengths going away. It paid $2.70 for a $2 ticket.

FIRST OF 70 GAMES

Bruins Invade Detroit Tonight As Longest NHL Grind Opens

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—(CP)—Boston Bruins and Detroit Red Wings inaugurate the longest season in National Hockey League history tonight when they square off in Detroit in the first game of the 1949-50 campaign.

Detroit won the league championship last season although Toronto captured the Stanley Cup playoff.

Each of the league's six teams will play 70 games, 35 at home and 35 on the road, an increase of 10 games over last season's schedule.

Chicago Black Hawks and Montreal Canadiens will play their first games of the season Thursday night while New York Rangers and Toronto Maple Leafs get under way Saturday night with the Rangers in Montreal and the Leafs at home against Chicago.

For tonight's opener, the Bruins will start off with a relatively-untried goalie, Jack Gelineau, who is replacing the great Frankie Brimsek, traded to Chicago.

But the Bruins are confident that Gelineau, who got his start with McGill University, Montreal, in intercollegiate competition, has the stuff for the big game. Gelineau played four games for the Bruins last year and displayed enough skill to give the bench confidence.

But to be on the safe side the Bruins have bolstered their defence with Bill Quackenbush, the Detroit star, and by converting Milt Schmidt, one of hockey's all-time greats, into a rear-guardsman.

The Bruins also have a good back log of defence stars to pad the screen in front of Gelineau.

The Red Wings, with an eye to capturing the Stanley Cup, last week entered into a six-player deal with the Bruins, with the results awaited in tonight's clash.

The Wings sent Quackenbush and forward Pete Horeck to Boston. The Detroit squad strengthened their forward line by acquiring from the Bruins forwards Pete Babando and Jimmy Peters, and defencemen Clare Martin and Lloyd Durham.

Babando and Peters are expected to help Detroit's assault.

And Detroit's regular combination, which last year topped the NHL during the regular season and then dropped the Stanley Cup playoff to Toronto, is all ready to try for the top again.

In Toronto yesterday, Conn Smythe, manager of Toronto Maple Leafs, predicted Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks "might finish one-two" in the league schedule.

Smythe didn't venture any opinion as to where his own Leafs would wind up, except to say that the other NHL teams including the Leafs "will be in there battling" for the remaining playoff spots.

Smythe refused to be drawn out on a prediction of coach Dick Irvin of Montreal that "Canadiens won't be in there this year because the forwards are too light." Irvin made the forecast while in Toronto Monday night for the All-Star game.

"Did they lose any weight during the summer?" Smythe asked. "They've got Elmer Lach back, too."

With the weather unseasonably mild, Leafs yesterday sweated through their first Maple Leaf Gardens practice this season. Then they returned to their training camp at St. Catharines, Ont., where they will remain until shortly before the whistle blows Saturday.

The Bruins will present a new coach, George (Buck) Boucher, elder brother of the Rangers' manager, Frank Boucher. George, who starred as a defenceman during his 15-year NHL career, supplants Dit Clapper.

Returning coaches are Tommy Ivan, Detroit, Hap Day, Toronto, Charlie Conacher, Chicago, Dick Irvin, Montreal, and Lynn Patrick, New York.

Esks Face Tough Fight To Capture Playoff Berth

By DICK BEDDOES

Edmonton Eskimos face the toughest assignment in Canadian football right now—if they hope to make the playoffs in the Western Conference.

They have no alternative but to win four of their remaining five games if they want to edge Regina Roughriders for second, and last, playoff berth in the union.

And they say they want to do just that.

It won't be easy.

They face Calgary Stampeders in three of these remaining games, meeting Winnipeg and Regina once each.

In saying Eskimos must win four out of five you automatically assume that Regina, with four games to play, will topple Winnipeg in their two remaining contests.

Roughriders have 10 points, Edmonton six. By winning two from the last-place Blue Bombers, Regina can finish with 13 points (one of the games is of the one-point variety).

Two of Edmonton's games with Stampeders are one-point efforts, while one is a regular two-point affair.

By winning all their two-point games (all three of 'em), and one one-pointer Eskimos would have 13 points. Losing a two-pointer, therefore, means elimination should Regina get by Winnipeg as everybody expects them to.

The key game at the moment is that one with Calgary in Cowtown Saturday night.

It'll be curtains, chums, if we lose that one.

ROAD TRIP RAMBLINGS—According to coach Annis Stukus you can pin a Wednesday wildflower on Bill (60 minute) Radovich, Lou (Comeback) Mogul, Jerry Searight, Nate Shore, and Andy Marefos.

Those veterans led a savage-charging and vicious-tackling club against Roughriders Monday afternoon.

The coach didn't admit it, but everyone else claims Bill Stukus rates a bouquet, too, for his effective quarterbacking.

Pretty hard to forget Ken Sluman, the punter, when it comes to the raves and roses department.

Club doctor, Dr. Cal Fletcher, reports that everyone will be in shape for the Calgary game. That includes Gene (Bearpaw) Kiniski who suffered a shoulder separation, and Harry Bunting who received a slight concussion in Regina.

Esks' backfield timing was left at home on this trip, according to most observers. So when the club drills nightly this week you can wager a pretzel that Stukus will be stressing timing in an effort to make Edmonton's offence click this Saturday like it's never clicked before.

If it doesn't, it's curtains.

NO FISH story was this 580-pound tuna hauled in by Tony Hulman, hatless, in International Tuna Tournament. Hulman, from Wedgeport, Nova Scotia, makes with big grin for photographer. United States team won competition.

Don Culley Cinch To Catch On Here

Don Culley is practically a cinch to be signed by Edmonton Flyers before the week is out.

The former Calgary Stampeder arrived back in town yesterday and worked out with coach Frank Currie and his crew last night.

He has secured his release from the Stamps and will likely be facing his old teammates when Edmonton plays Calgary Friday evening.

Currie didn't say Culley was signed. But Donald admitted that Edmonton looks like it'll be his new hockey home for this season.

IN THE BAG

Said Culley: "It (a contract) looks like it's in the bag".

Meanwhile, Currie indicated that he was satisfied with the Flyer showing against Spokane Monday.

"For a first game we looked OK," said he, "After all, we did win."

He wouldn't venture a guess as the outcome of the first Western Canada Hockey League game Friday. Any prophecy would have been sheer speculation anyway, since the texture of the Calgary club this year is an unknown quantity.

KROL THIRD

Ches McCance Nears East Point Parade

TORONTO, Oct. 12—(CP)—Burly Ches McCance of Montreal Alouettes pulled up into the contention in the eastern Canada football scoring race over the busy Thanksgiving Day week-end.

Statistics compiled by the Canadian Press show that the former Winnipeg player's 17-point performance, best in the east, pulled him up into second place in the Big Four union with 39 points. But the versatile McCance, who plays either at flying wing or on the line, is still 12 points behind the leader, Ottawa's Howie (Touchdown) Turner, who has 51.

Joe Krol of Toronto Argonauts, idle with an ankle injury, still holds third place in the big four with 36 points.

Merle Hapes, former American professional who doubles as coach and halfback with Hamilton Tigers, still leads in the Ontario Rugby Football Union with 36 points, six more than dashing young Jack Murphy of Windsor, who scored two touchdowns in two week-end games. Joe Capriotti, Tigers' place-kicking expert, is third with 26 points.

Al Lenard of Queen's stands at the head of the Intercollegiate Union class after the opening games in that union. The former Hamilton star in the O.R.F.U. got six points on a field goal and three converts. Ten players are grouped behind him with five points each.

LISTOWEL, Ont., Oct. 12—(CP)—John Hutton pitched his second no-hit, no-run game of the season as Listowel Legionnaires blanked a hand-picked aggregation 4-0 in a Western Ontario Athletic Association all-star baseball game here. The six-foot Hutton, signed for a spring trial with Newark Bears, had both his fast ball and assortment of curves working as he fanned 17 batters.

PARIS, Oct. 12—(Reuters)—Marcel Bousac's filly, Coronation Five, Saturday won the 92,400 Prix De L'Arc De Triomphe at Longchamp. Another filly, Double Rose, owned by film star Rita Hayworth, Princess Aly Khan, was second, four lengths behind.

DUCEY BACK FROM TRIP TO STATES

John Ducey and wife Grace returned recently from a holiday trip to the western States.

While "on tour" Ducey took time out to contact baseball men in the Pacific Northwest, notably Brooklyn Dodgers' Babe Barberis. Some 18 young men will likely be sent into the Big Four baseball league next year, courtesy of Barberis.

Roger Jenkins, former National League player who is well known locally, got together with the Duceys in Seattle. Rajah is in the lumber business and doing right well, they say.

NO SURPRISE

Filchock Not Coming Here

By JOHN McLEAN

Frankie Filchock says he's not coming to Edmonton to coach the Eskimos.

Now that that's settled, you may well say, who in heck said he was?

You can blame it on Vern De Geer, a Montreal sports scribe, formerly of the Globe and Mail, and presently, apparently, a man who doesn't do much research on things he writes.

Writes De Geer in today's Montreal Gazette:

"According to reliable sources . . . Edmonton officials are said to have offered the former New York Giants star an open contract, including a deal that would give him a percentage of the gate receipts."

Vern's reliable source must have been the guy who peddles hot dogs at Molson Stadium.

I called Filchock at his Montreal hotel last night. The Alouettes' passing ace, roused from his trundle bed, yawned:

"Wotzat?"

I explained to Frankie that De Geer had him practically on his way to Edmonton, that he had been offered everything but a half interest in Clarke Stadium.

"Nothing to it," said Montreal's fancy flinger. "I'm happy here. I have a three-year contract and I haven't been in touch with the Edmonton club for more than a year."

Filchock said the Esks dangled a contract under his nose last year but he had said "not interested."

The Alouettes are said to be paying the big American $10,000 a year for three years.

So far this season Frankie has tossed 105 passes for an average of .619. Those passes netted Montreal 18 touchdowns and 982 yards.

It's too bad, in a way, he isn't heading this way. Maybe Big Stuke could find a spot for him.

And here's one for De Geer:

I hear, from an unusually reliable source, that Frankie may soon replace Lew Hayman as coach of the Alouettes.

That's as reliable as De Geer's pipe dream anyway.

I got it from the guy who peddles soft drinks at Clarke Stadium.

New Victoria Club Beaten By Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12—(CP)—Vancouver had its first look at its 1949-50 hockey club last night as the Vancouver Canucks beat the flashy Victoria Cougars 7-4 in a Pacific Coast League game here.

Victoria, strong on material but weak on teamwork, scored early in the first period on a goal by Bernie Strongman after the Canucks had opened the scoring on a goal by Bill Shill. Victoria followed up with two more by Eddie Mazur.

Vancouver's passing strategy began to click in the second period as the Canucks netted three goals by Wimpy Jones, Paul Courteau and Scotty McPherson.

The sparkling attacks continued in the final frame with Chuck Millman, Len Mutcheson and Andy Chakowski each netting a marker. Victoria's Tom Rockey iced one for the Island team.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—(AP)—Napoleon Reyes, who left the New York Giants to play in the Mexican League, has been reinstated into organized baseball, the National League club announced today. Reyes will report to the Giants spring training camp in Phoenix, Ariz., next March. He played third base for the Giants in 1943 and 1944.

Fund Grows For Injured Blue Bomber

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12—(CP)—Officials of Winnipeg Blue Bombers said yesterday that more than $300 already had been contributed to a fund for Don Hiney, who may have to undergo an eye operation because of an injury suffered while playing last year with Bombers in the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

"We always received 100 per cent value from Hiney in the couple of seasons that he played with Bombers," club president E. A. Armstrong said. Hiney, first-string quarterback for three seasons with the Bombers, lives at Grand Forks, N.D.

Contributions for the fund started to roll in after Monday's game here between the Bombers and the Canadian champion Calgary Stampeders. Players and officials of both clubs donated to the fund. Onetime Bomber executive Joe Ryan, now connected with Montreal Alouettes, said he intended to see about raising eastern contributions.

nge For Toity-Toid'

TORONTO—The people you meet at a World Series what they say:

Wheezer Dell, one time pitcher for Edmonton skimos, later a member of Brooklyn Dodgers 1916 pennant winners; "Edmonton, did you say? Why I used to pitch up there. Deacon White, God bless him, was the manager. A great fellow, good baseball man, too".

"I understand you've struck oil around Edmonton. Well, I c'n remember being in Medicine Hat—along about 1911—when we were asked to be sure an' keep the gas burning. Guess there's always been lots of oil and gas in that country".

Bill Frawley, comedian, a very gracious character; "It's a pleasure to autograph this picture. Thank you".

The "Steerer" in a Brooklyn subway; "Yuh wanta get t'Toimes Squah? Jest take dis train to Canal Street. Change for toity-toid. Yah—dats what I said—toity-toid".

Joe DiMaggio: "I'm not goin' anywhere right now except just back to San Francisco. I'll be takin' it easy until spring. I was hittin' behind the ball all through the Series. No, I'm not sure just what I weigh".

Haak Can Still Beat Goldstick

Howie Haak, Dodger scout who was in charge of Brooklyn's first baseball school at Renfrew Park in 1947; "Hi ya, boy. How're things in Edmonton?—How's John Ducey? How'd he do this year. How's Dick? (Beddoes).

"Can't see how 'odgers folded like they did. But of course the pitchin' went sour. Erv Palica looked pretty good, you think? Yah, but what did he have to lose? The club eight or 10 runs down. It's different in a 2-2 ball game.

"Say how did Bob Peterson look pitchin' in "Your" league? And Bob Stuart—and the Ruzich I sent to Calgary. I understand Ted Tappe hit a few homers for Ducey. He might go somewhere. Can hit and run like a. . ."

"Tell Goldstick I c'n still throw him four times outta five. I'll prove it next time I'm up there. Hope it's next summer".

Fresco Thompson, former infielder with Giants and Phillies; "Boy, you came a long way for the Series".

Mrs. Bill Dewett, wife of the part owner of St. Louis Browns; "My husband says the Browns will win the pennant by 1953 at the latest. Sure hope so".

Quotes From the Series

Ty Cobb, baseball immortal (to a group of autograph hounds)—"Say, I'm getting a little tired of this. They didn't go in for it so much in my day".

Any number of Dodger fans, as Rex Barney headed for the showers in the third inning of the final game; "That Hubbards' (Cal Hubbard, plate umpire) a bum. Throw the bum outta heah".

Duane Pillette, Yankee rookie whose father, Herman Pillette, once pitched in the Western Canada League. "No, I don't especially care to get into the Series, cause that'd mean we were getting a bad beatin' somewhere".

"I'm workin' on a slider. Hope to have it good by next spring. What's a slider? Just a nickel curve, that's all. I c'n throw it sometimes. But you know it's gonna break every time".

Vic Raschi, to 'teen age camera fiend; "No, not before a game".

'Teen-age camera fiend; "Heck. Everybody else gave me a shot".

Jackie Robinson, to Larry Doby, who is needling him; "Sure, I know I'm just a .297 hitter. But the record says I hit .342".

Don Newcombe, to both; "Will you guys quit arguin' and come on. Ah don't wanta ride night and day to Norfolk and we gotta be there Tuesday.

CARDIFF GIANT STOPS HART

Stu Hart, Edmonton's gift to the wrestling world, became an added victim to the Cardiff Giant's win record at the Stock Pavilion last night when referee Tiny Mills awarded the Giant the bout on a disqualification.

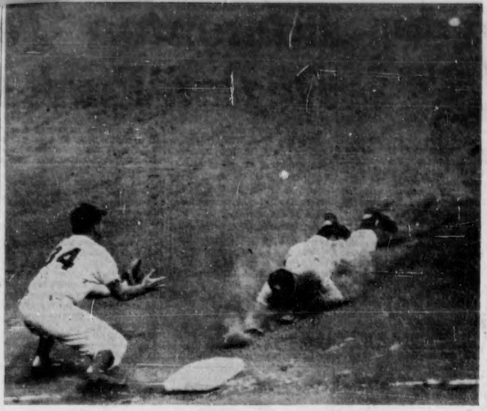
Mills was tossed from the ring three times by Hart. So tiring of this practice, Mills ejected his tormentor after the Giant had won the first fall. In the semi, Ted Tourtas beat the Swedish Angel two out of three falls.

Bibber McCoy beat Joey Ortega in the special and Ted Wilkins lost on a disqualification in the opener.

MONTREAL, Oct. 12 —(CP)—Jacques Locas, forward, has been suspended by Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League, it was learned today. Locas had been training with the new Cincinnati team of the American Hockey Association and differences arose over the salary question. Cincinnati is an affiliate of the Canadien club.

PORTLAND, Oct. 12—(AP)—smooth-passing Seattle team broke away from tie in the third period to defeat Portand 4-2 in opening their Pacific Coast ice hockey league play Saturday night.

PLACID LAKE, N.Y., Oct. 12—(AP)—New York Rangers wound up their exhibition series with New Haven Ramblers Saturday night by taking a 7-2 triumph over their American Hockey League farmhands.



NEW YORK shortstop Phil Rizzuto's head first slide into third base beat the ball (upper right) to bag in first inning of Sunday's World Series game. Eddie Miksis, Dodgers' third baseman, reaches for ball.

Negro Boxer Dies Hours After Torrid Ring Battle

DETROIT, Oct. 12 — (AP)—A young Negro boxer, felled by a smashing head blow in the ring Monday night, died yesterday with a blood clot on the brain.

Death of Talmadge Bussey, 26, was the eighth recorded ring fatality in the world this year.

The ring record book shows that at this time last year there were 13 ring fatalities in the United States. The 1943 total was 14. At this time in 1947 there were nine deaths.

The Negro lightweight fell unconscious in the ninth round of a furious battle with Luther Rawlings of Chicago. Referee Herman Spinelli called the fight and awarded Rawlings a knockout.

Taken to hospital, Bussey was operated on for a blood clot. He died 11 hours later. Coroner Samuel B. Milton ordered a post mortem examination last night. Police began an investigation.

The feature bout at Arcadia Roller Rink was a slugfest from the start. Rawlings himself was knocked down in the sixth round and he said later he couldn't remember a thing after that.

It was a revenge fight for Bussey. A month ago he lost a split decision to Rawlings at Chicago.

The white-hot temper of the battle spread over a frantic crowd of some 900 spectators. When Bussey fell and the referee kept his seconds from touching him, the crowd surged toward the ring. Police had to hold them back.

RICHARDS MAY PILOT CHISOX

CHICAGO, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Sun Times said tonight that Paul Richards, manager of Buffalo Bisons in the International League, is "almost certain" to succeed Jack Onslow as pilot of Chicago White Sox.

The newspaper said Richards, former New York Giants and Detroit Tigers catcher, "was approached by both major and minor league clubs with managerial offers for 1950" during the World Series.

Onslow, who managed the White Sox to sixth place this season, has one year of his contract to go.

Richards managed Buffalo to the International League pennant this year.

SMYTHE PICKS WINGS, HAWKS OVER LEAFS

TORONTO, Oct. 12—(CP)—A prediction that Detroit Red Wings and Chicago Black Hawks "might finish one-two" in the National Hockey League schedule this season was made today by Con Smythe, manager of Toronto Maple Leafs.

Smythe didn't venture any opinion as to where his own Leafs would wind up, except to say that the other NHL teams including the Leafs "will be in there battling" for the remaining playoff spots.

He told an interviewer that the Leafs will be at full strength when they start their defence of the Stanley Cup in Toronto opening of the 1949 NHL season against Chicago Saturday.

Pittsburgh Bows, 3-2, To Flyers

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12—(AP)—Cliff Simpson last night led St. Louis Flyers with two goals and an assist on a third one in a 3-2 victory over Pittsburgh Hornets in their opening regular game of the American Hockey League season.

Simpson, newcomer to the Flyers, assisted Ed Nicholson to a first-period score, then pushed the puck past goalie Gil Mayer once each in the last two frames before 7,116 fans.

The Hornets came back strong in the late minutes to spoil Ralph (Red) Almas' shutout. Andy Barbe counted for Pittsburgh at 10:27 of the final period and Bill Benson did likewise five minutes later.

LONDON, Oct. 12 —(AP)— The board that controls betting at British race tracks today envisioned a country-wide network of pari-mutuel machines controlled through one central office. The race course betting control board outlined the proposed system in a report to the Royal Commission which is reviewing the entire betting structure of the country with an eye to reforms.

ESK PREXY NIXES REPORT

R. M. Montague, president of Edmonton Eskimos, last night denied that Frank Filchock of Montreal Alouettes has been offered a job as playing-coach with Esks.

"I don't know where these things come from, but we have not approached Filchock, nor have I heard of any movement to do so," Mr. Montague said.

"The board of directors of Eskimos feel that coach Annis Stukus has done an outstanding job in building up a club in our first year. We are perfectly satisfied.

"In connection with saying that we are not approaching anyone else, I would not like to say whether Stukus will be offered a contract for next year — that is for the board to decide—but I will say we are perfectly satisfied."

Travellers Ready For Rich Bonspiel

The Associated Canadian Travellers failed to receive 128 curling entries for their motor car bonspiel which commences here on October 31.

But it couldn't matter less.

The 'spiel, on behalf of the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's fund, will go as scheduled.

However, the travellers have decided to keep the entry list open until two days prior to the starting date.

First three days of the week-long curling-fest will see all the action concentrated on the artificial ice at the Granite and Edmonton clubs.

Last three days of the snow are scheduled for Edmonton Gardens, in addition to the Granite and Edmonton.

Len Smith, veteran ice-maker at the Royal club, will be in charge of preparing the huge Gardens' ice surface for curling purposes.

BIG PRIZE LIST

The prize list reads like a page out of a commercial sales catalogue, with the big swag of course being four automobiles. These curlingmobiles are on display at Dominion Motors, Edmonton Motors, Price Andrews, and Kenn's Garage.

Also included in the big $12,000 booty list are four of each of the following: Occasional chairs, electric blankets, ash trays, pressure cookers, suits, Winchester rifles, mirrors, mantel radios, car radios, club bags, electric razors, Kenwood coats and Biltmore hats, portable radios, and 66-piece dinner sets.

Entries received yesterday came from the Beagle rink of Blackie, Alberta's representatives in the 1949 MacDonald Brier, H. E. Rocher of Fort St. John, R. Dahlen of Rolla, and George Simmers of Prince George in B.C.; and H. Bekbus of LaGlace, and W. Fillipenko of Settler in Alberta.

Phone entries to 21597 or mail to ACT headquarters, 10750-109th Street.

Bears Take AHL Debut

HERSHEY, Pa., Oct. 12—(AP)—Hershey Bears last night opened the 1949-50 hockey season by defeating Springfield Indians 5-3 in the American Hockey League before a crowd of 4,070.

Sam Casanata scored for the Indians early in the first period. Norm Larson tied it up and Mark Marquess put the Bears in front. The Indians came back and Ken Hayden made it all even. With seven seconds left in the opening period the Bears took a lead in Roly McLenahan's goal and never gave it up.

Jerry Brown scored an easy goal in the second period for the Bears when Phil McAtee ventured out of the Indians' net to break up a scrimmage play and fell. The Indians edged up on Burnett's goal late in the period.

The final period was a rough and tumble battle with the Bears scoring the lone goal. It was a long screened shot by the veteran Gordie Bruce.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12 —(AP)—Shirley M. Ball of Laurel, Md., was suspended today as trainer and owner for one year after a hearing on a charge his horse was given an injection of mustard. The Maryland Racing Commission found Ball guilty of negligence in guarding his horse, Brooke Argo.

BIG LEAD

Vern Graham Still Tops Scoring Race

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12—(CP)—Vern Graham of Calgary Stampeders and Sammy Pierce of Saskatchewan Roughriders continue to run one-two in the individual scoring race of the Western Interprovincial Football Union.

Statistics compiled by Canadian Press show Graham with 42 points, 12 more than Pierce, starry import form Baylor University. The Calgary homebrew's total comes from 16 converts, seven field goals and one touchdown. He picked up nine points on Pierce in the last week.

Tied for third spot are two Riders—Pat Santucci and Del Wardien, each with 27 points. Teammate Matt Anthony follows with 25 points.

Bob Sandberg of Winnipeg Blue Bombers and Calgary's Woody Strode are deadlocked for sixth place with 20 points apiece. Sandberg's eight-point performance Saturday pulled him back into the Big Ten after an absence of one week.

Filling out the other positions are Calgary's Harry Hood, Rod Pantages and Sugarfoot Anderson and Edmonton's Pat West, each with 15 points.

In Drummondville, Quebec, the manufacture of commercial fishing lines of nylon has been started.

Cincinnati Has Rough AHL Start

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12—(AP)—The Indianapolis Capitals last night gave Cincinnati's new team a rough send-off in the American Hockey League by thumping the yet-unnamed outfit 3-0.

The opening-night crowd for the first league hockey game in Cincinnati appeared to be about 8,000, but Garden officials did not give out the exact figures.

The Caps, well stocked with veterans of AHL play, were held on even terms by Cincinnati until almost half the game had elapsed, by brilliant net-minding on the part of Gerry McNeil, young Cincinnati goalie.

Don Morrison finally broke through to score at 8:31 of the second period on an unassisted play.

The Caps poured in two more goals in the final period with Pat Lundy getting the first one at 14:27 and Calum McKay getting the other at 18:08.

Parker Turns Pro

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—(AP)—Thirty-three-year-old Frank Parker, who has toured the world as an amateur tennis player for more than half his life, today agreed to continue touring as a member of the Jack Kramer-Pancho Gonzales professional troupe.

Bobby Riggs, tournament manager, said Parker will come here Thursday to sign a contract and will make his professional debut against Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador, at Madison Square Garden Oct. 25, Parker will receive $500 a week for a six-month period for his part in the show, which will tour 100 cities.

Parker has been a prominent tennis player since he was 15 years old. He won his first title, the National Boys championship at that age in 1931. Since then he has acquired 14 other assorted national titles, including the United States Men's singles championship in 1944 and 1945, the Canadian Singles and the French Singles titles.

Parker also was a member of three United States Davis Cup teams, in 1937, 1939 and 1948, but he was not selected this year. His final amateur competition was in the Pan-American championships at Mexico City last week.

Seattle Nips Rockets 5-4

TACOMA, Oct. 12—(AP)—Seattle's Ironmen rallied in the third period for a 5-4 Pacific Coast Hockey league victory over Tacoma Rockets here last night.

Behind 3-2 as the final period opened, Seattle scored three goals in quick succession to clinch the victory. Stan Maxwell and Cal Stearns led the Ironmen with two goals each. Kalapaca got the other.

Wingy Johnston had a pair for Tacoma, with Adam and Read netting the others.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—(AP)—It was Calumet Farm day at Belmont Park Saturday as Ponder ran away with the 54,400 jockey club gold cup and his stablemate, Theory, took care of the $32,200 Champagne stakes.

SEATTLE, Oct. 12—(AP)—Seattle Ironmen won their second straight Pacific Coast hockey league clash Sunday, knotting the count with two quick goals in the second period and adding another pair in the third frame to whip New Westminster Royals 5-4.

Edmonton 'Team to Beat' Regina Puck Boss Figures

BY DOUG GREEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

REGINA, Oct. 12—(CP)—Regina Caps, defending champions of the Western Canada Senior Hockey League, have no illusions about the quality of the competition they'll face this season.

But manager Cliff Ehrle and coach Art Somers look to the club to give a good account of itself. Even now, they pick Edmonton Flyers as the team to beat.

Ehrle considers the league will be stronger this year than last.

His reasons: Lethbridge Maple Leafs are out of competition; Saskatoon Quakers have embarked on a "spending splurge" in the search for talent. This means the calibre of the opposition Caps will face will be good.

"Lethbridge and Saskatoon were weak last year," said Ehrle. This year things will be different.

The Caps have an imposing array of talent on hand. But one of their big guns of last season has joined the pro ranks. Gus Kyle, Ab McDougall, Howie Milford and Red Staley all attended the New York Yankees training camp and Kyle clicked.

Meanwhile they have two forward lines with which to work, made up of last season's regulars. One is made up of Lou Hauck, Bill Kyle and Mel Hill. On the others are Red Tilson, Gordie Staseson and Toby Brown.

Also on hand are Harvey Stein, a big, spunky centre who played with Moose Jaw Canucks last year; Vic Kreklewetz, with Quakers last year; and two ex-members of Fort Frances Canadians, Sabo Fedoruk and Harold Brayshaw.

Spare goalie Keith McCutcheon is working out, together with Bun Nicholson, with Toledo last year.

On hand is Steve Witiuk, forward with Winnipeg Black Hawks last year while big Buck Rogers, who has been seeing action with Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Western International Football Union, is trying out for the Caps as well. He's playing defence.

Coach Somers considers the youth of his new players one of the club's greatest assets. None of the recruits has seen his better days in other leagues.

The Caps always have been a popular draw on the road. S has the advantage of knowing of his players from their past formances. His regulars will quire little coaching.

Take the youth of his rookies and the experience of his regulars, combine and train well and the Caps have a club which will do credit to him, Somers feels.

That's important because with the withdrawal of Lethbridge there will be a few more home games this season than last.

We'll have a better club than last year," says Somers.

There are always those Flyers but, says Ehrle (taking a deep breath):

"With the playoffs in Western Canada this year it's our year for the (Allan) cup."

Athletes Set For Cup Meet

By Gordon Nault

Hungry Varsity athletes are after the Cairns Trophy in the big inter-collegiate track meet Saturday at Saskatoon.

Bill Bailey will throw the discus, and in yesterday's tryouts he wheeled the plate for 120 feet. Jim Proudfoot will hurl the javelin, while Ivan Head, Ron Thomas and Cal Edwards are picked to compete in the 100 and 220-yard sprints.

High jumpers are Ted Allan and Thomas, and Edwards is the broad jumper. The relay team will be composed of Head, Edwards, Allan and Thomas.

Two-mile jaunts will be run by Ernie Longeway and Dennis Engels, with Frank Miklos representing varsity in the one mile.

Many of the sprinters have covered at least 35 miles in a three-week training period and all claim it has been a tough grind.

They feel that track workouts should begin earlier and, to quote one of the sprinters: "Something should be done about this out-of-season track business."

Women's tennis representatives will be Nancy Collinge, western Canada junior champ, Flora Morrison, and Muriel Clapp, according to Pat Austin, physical education instructor.

In golf, city junior golf champ Francis Farley, Enid Hannah, and Betty Anne Loveseth will contend for the Birks trophy, which is up for the first time.

AUSSIE WINS EASY DECISION

LONDON, Oct. 12—(AP)—Dave Sands, Australian triple champion, last night won a 10-round decision over Pete Mead of Grand Rapids, Mich., before a capacity crowd of 10,000 at Harringay Arena.

Sands, who holds his country's middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweight crowns as well as the British Empire 160-pound title, was credited with seven rounds on the Associated Press' score-card to one for Mead. Two were rated even.

The Australian narrowly outweighed Mead, 162½ to 160.

FOR YOUNG MEN WHO WANT TO BECOME SKILLED IN THE TECHNIQUES OF RADIO AND COMMUNICATIONS

THERE IS Real Opportunity
IN THE NEW Shore Communications Branch of the R.C.N.

Here young men will find a highly interesting career that will train them to be skilled technicians in the most modern phases of radio operation and maintenance, for communications and search and rescue.

In addition to the regular training, special courses in radio engineering will be given to men showing ability and interest.

Here in this new branch is opportunity for personal advancement with an avenue to commissioned rank. An interesting job, a secure career plus useful service to Canada.

Short periods afloat may be required in radio counter-measure duties, but duties will be almost entirely ashore at stations where living accommodation is provided and special quarters for married men are being made available.

You get regular naval pay on entry and extra trades pay on completion of training courses.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS BRANCH ARE SIMPLE

Previous training in radio work is not essential and physical disabilities of a non-organic nature, or the lack of perfect eyesight, are not a handicap.

You must have grade 10 education or better and be able to read and write good English.

For men without radio experience enlistment is 17 to 25 years. For men with experience the age is 17 to 29 years.

Enlistment openings are limited. GET FULL PARTICULARS AT ONCE ABOUT THIS ATTRACTIVE OPPORTUNITY. Write the Naval Recruiting Officer, Royal Canadian Navy, Ottawa or visit your nearest Naval Division:

Good Market for Eggs Predicted By Gardiner

By Robert W. Reford
British United Press Staff Correspondent

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(BUP)—Canadian egg producers who were unable to meet the demand for their products this year, were able to look forward today to another good market in 1950.

Agriculture Minister James G. Gardiner told the Commons last night that the government was trying to work out an egg contract with Great Britain and "we hope to make one that will take care of any surplus we may have."

MORE EGGS WANTED

He recalled that when Britain said she could not take all the Canadian egg surplus this year, the government found a market for the rest in the United States. "We could have sold far more eggs, but the eggs were not available to be sold," he added.

Britain agreed to take 46 million dozen dried eggs this year, he said, "but it would appear at the moment that we probably will not be able to supply more than 34 million dozen."

Asked by Earl Catherwood (PC—Haldimand) to assure Canadian farmers that a substantial market for their eggs would exist next year, Gardiner said:

"Nothing has happened which would indicate that it will be anything different than it has been in the past year, and we did find markets for more than they were able to produce."

N.S. REFUSAL

Gardiner also revealed that Nova Scotia apple growers have so far refused to sell apples to Great Britain under terms of an agreement worked out by Trade Minister C. D. Howe.

Under the agreement Britain put up $1,500,000 and Canada a like sum for the purchase of Canadian apples at 80 per cent of the 1946 contract price.

The agriculture minister also told the house that the government would be able to sell all of the 3,000,000 pounds of honey it was forced to buy last year.

The long drought this summer had cut so heavily into honey production that there would be a demand for all of last year's surplus that the government had bought, he said.

Plane-Bombing Trial Is Set For January 9

QUEBEC CITY, Oct. 12.—(BUP)—A defense plea for more time to prepare the case of J. Albert Guay, 31, charged with murdering his wife by time-bombing an airliner with 22 others aboard, was granted today when Guay was ordered to appear on trial next Jan. 9.

The other central figure in the bomb plot which killed 23 persons, Mrs. Marguerite Pitre, 41, had her preliminary hearing on a charge of attempted suicide advanced to Oct. 19.

Costs Down Here At Bigger Ratio

National Decrease In Index Is .5; For Edmonton Is 1.5

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Following the general cost-of-living index, living cost indexes decreased during August for each of eight regional cities on which the Bureau of Statistics keeps a separate check.

Lower prices for foods, particularly fresh vegetables, meats and fruits were mainly responsible, and eggs also were cheaper at most centres.

Rentals rose fractionally, price changes for clothing were mixed and fuel costs at Montreal and Saskatoon were higher, although unchanged at other cities.

Composite city index decreases between Aug. 1 and Sept. 1 showed the index rose 1.6 points at Halifax; Edmonton 1.5; Winnipeg 1.3, Saskatoon 1.0; Vancouver 0.7; Montreal 0.4; Saint John, N.B., 0.3 and Toronto 0.3.

The city indexes show the extent of the rise or fall in the cost of living as between cities. However, they do not compare the actual level of living costs.

Calculated on the base, August 1939, equals 100, the indexes combined to place the index for the whole Dominion at 161.0 on Sept. 1 compared with 161.5 Aug. 1 and 157.6 on Sept. 1, 1948.

The bureau's general index is computed on the base 1935-39 equals 100. On this base the index rose a half point during August to 162.3.

Following are the latest city and Dominion indexes on the August, 1939, base:

	Aug. 1, 1949	Sept. 1. 1949
Halifax	157.2	155.6
Saint John	159.7	159.4
Montreal	166.1	165.7
Toronto	158.5	158.2
Winnipeg	157.9	156.6
Saskatoon	163.8	162.8
Edmonton	158.3	156.8
Vancouver	164.2	163.5
Dominion	161.5	161.0

AT 110 PLAYS SPRIGHTLY AIR ON HARMONICA

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—(AP)—To hear William Williams play "Little Brown Jug" on the harmonica, you'd think he was only 90 years old, or maybe a hundred.

"But don't let anyone tell you different," he said today. "I was 110 yesterday.'

"Why, my father was 120 when I buried him," he declared, "and I'm a chip off the old block. Yes siree."

Williams has records indicating that he was born Oct. 10, 1839.

Cheese Market Boost Sought

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Canada is trying to negotiate a bigger cheese contract with Britain for the coming year, Agriculture Minister Gardiner last night told the Commons.

He also informed members that indications up to now are that Canada will be able to sell all the poultry products she can produce in 1950.

Combat Pollution

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Some 40 Canadian and United States waterways experts yesterday gathered to open the three-day semi-annual meeting of the International Joint Commission. It is considering pollution and other problems affecting international waterways stretching from the Columbia River on the west to the Passamaquoddy on the east.

BUT DON'T LIKE 'EM

We Know People Who Say Things Like That

McHENRY, Ill., Oct. 12—(AP)—Bidding was fast and furious between the four women in a bridge game at the home of Mrs. Norman Eggert.

When Mrs. Julia Justen bid four spades, Mrs. Calla Freund sighed. "I hate to give up five honors in diamonds," she remarked.

"Five honors!" echoed the other players. All four laid down their hands. All four had five honors—Mrs. Barbara Krause, the dealer, in clubs; Mrs. Freund, her partner, in diamonds; Mrs. Julia Justen in spades; Mrs. Elvira Justen, her partner, in hearts.

"I dealt and I assure you I didn't stack the cards," Mrs. Krause told a reporter. "If I had, I would have dealt myself the honors in spades—not in clubs."

"Twelve women at the bridge party will vouch for it. We never heard of such a thing around here."

Bridge experts in Chicago said it was extremely rare.

STATE PAPERS HIDDEN IN WAR BEING SORTED

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Five shelters, deep under London subway stations, house 3,000 tons of state documents.

On shelves a quarter-mile long are stacked Board of Trade papers dating back to 1850, admiralty and foreign office reports and biographical data on pre-1914 soldiers.

Librarians are busy sorting the documents. Some will be bound and retained permanently. Others will be destroyed.

11 Lose Lives Throughout B.C. Over Week-End

VANCOUVER, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Eleven persons—one a woman—met violent deaths in British Columbia during the Thanksgiving week-end.

Traffic accidents claimed the lives of three men, two drowned, two were shot, two were killed in falls, a 10th victim was found hanged, and a nurse died from an overdose of sleeping tablets.

The dead included Sapper Joe Gaston Chevaux, 24-year-old Montreal soldier, killed in an auto collision near Chilliwack.

Party Solidarity Urged By Sask. Tory Chief

REGINA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—The federal budget brought down prior to the June 27 dominion general election last night was seen as the key to the stunning Liberal victory in the voting.

"It's deplorable that such a large proportion of the votes in this country were for sale," S. W. Nichols of Indian Head, Sask., said in his presidential address to the two-day leadership convention of the Saskatchewan Progressive-Conservatives, gathered to replace Rupert D. Ramsay, who resigned.

Mr. Nichols appealed to Conservatives to vote for their own party.

VOTES SAID SPLIT

"We'll soon disappear entirely as a party if we don't stop splitting our vote," he said, explaining that Tories had voted CCF in 1944 to defeat the Liberals, and voted Liberal in 1948 in an attempt to beat the CCF.

Regret was expressed that George Drew, national leader of the party, had been unable to attend the convention due to illness.

In addition to the resignation of Mr. Ramsay, the convention voted to accept that of H. O. Wright of Saskatoon as provincial treasurer.

John Diefenbaker, member of parliament for Lake Centre, told delegates that "freedom is in danger" because of the huge Liberal majority in the House of Commons.

He said the large Liberal representation in the federal house has limited the effectiveness of the opposition.

He accused the federal government of neglecting important problems such as the high cost of living and the fall in international trade, and concentrating instead on such "comparatively minor" questions as appeals to the Privy Council, a national flag and a Canadian-born governor-general.

"In co-operation with the United States," Mr. Diefenbaker said, "we should strengthen commonwealth relations rather than weaken them."

Two Navy Fliers 'Ditch' In East

LUNENBURG, N.S., Oct. 12.—(CP)—Two Canadian navy fliers were rescued from the icy waters of Lunenburg harbor last night after they made an emergency landing when their fuel ran out.

Lt.-Cmdr. William Munroe of Dunville, Ont., the pilot, and Lieut. R. J. S. Harrington, believed from Toronto, received slight cuts and bruises in the ditching.

The two were ferrying a twin-engined Anson aircraft from Quebec to Halifax.

Baltic Refugees Fly To Canada

CORK, Republic of Ireland, Oct. 12 — (Reuters) — Thirteen of 385 Baltic refugees who came from Sweden in the former British landing craft Victory, left yesterday for Shannon airport to fly to Canada. The 11 adults and two children all have visas to enter Canada and have financial credits there.

Don't Suffer with Athlete's Foot—use ZAM-BUK

Athlete's Foot (soft, sore, peeling skin between toes) is quickly relieved by a nightly application of Zam-Buk. The healing, antiseptic herbal oils and medicinal extracts in Zam-Buk Ointment are excellent for skin eruptions, and eczema, chafing, blisters, burns and scalds. Recommended for sore, aching swollen feet. Always keep Zam-Buk in your medicine chest.

EDMONTON BULLETIN

HAPPY WINNER of brand new Mercury auto this week was Walter Obnoski of Westlock. Mr. Obnoski came to city yesterday to pick up his prize in Edmonton Lions' Club limerick contest, and was presented with keys to new auto by Lions' Club prexy Maurice McNair while Mrs. Obnoski watches from seat of prize.

Council Supports Protest On Drive-In Theatre Site

Edmonton city council will add its moral support to Pleasant View Community League's protest against proposed construction and operation of a new drive-in theatre just south of the city limits on 109 street.

At last night's meeting it agreed to instruct commissioners to communicate with the provincial town planning department, the municipality of Strathcona and the owners, telling them that council thinks another site should be considered.

Commissioners should then look further into the matter and report back to council on probable effects on the city of such an operation.

HAS PROTEST

A. M. Lassell, president of the Pleasant View Community League, appeared before council to protest construction of the theatre, and said he thought the compnay would not go ahead with it if it felt that it did not have the city's goodwill or the goodwill of the public at large.

Council agreed to protest the project on the ground that future highway extensions make the site undesirable.

Mayor Harry Ainlay suggested a site near the projected four-lane highway to Nisku would be preferable, because it would give a better approach than off a gravel road.

NEW HEAD of city's Welfare Department, E. S. Bishop of Toronto, arrived here yesterday to take over new duties. Mr. Bishop, graduate of University of Toronto, has been active in welfare work for many years, and will work with Frank Drayton until latter's retirement in January at which time Mr. Bishop will take over department.

Bay Head Sees Reds Resorting to Battle

Russia may have to resort to war to "save face" as Hitler did in 1939.

Sir Patrick Ashley Cooper, distinguished Londoner, and Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, made this statement here yesterday when commenting on the world peace situation.

He was accompanied on his tour of Alberta by C. S. Riley, the company's Canadian chairman, and Elmer Woods, member of the Canadian committee. Both are from Winnipeg.

Sir Patrick declared that Russia has not deviated from her purpose despite apparent concessions.

There is a possibility that while the Soviet country does not want war, her leaders may have to resort to it to gain their ends over the opposition of the democracies, he said.

During his visit here, Sir Patrick conferred with associates in the development of the Company's holdings through the Hudson's Bay Oil and Gas Company.

Oil development in Alberta will have a tremendous effect not only on the provinces economy but that of the entire Dominion, the Bay chieftain said.

Making his second visit to Canada this year, Sir Patrick visited the Company's outposts in Newfoundland, Labrador and Quebec prior to coming to Alberta.

Campaign Meeting Dates Set

First Gun Fired In Calder School; 3 Others Follow

Ald. George Gleave's move to have city council delete Calder school and Alberta Avenue Community hall from the list of proposed election campaign meetings met defeat at last night's council meeting.

Council decided to have the campaign open Wednesday, Oct. 26, in Calder school, and continue Thursday, Friday and Monday in the following halls, respectively: Strathcona Assembly hall, Alberta Avenue Community hall, and Memorial Hall.

Aldermanic and school board aspirants will have five minutes each and mayoralty candidates 10 minutes each.

TWO ENOUGH

Ald. Gleave thought two meetings should be dispensed with because only 10 or 12 turned up last year at Calder school, and most come "only to see the fireworks anyway."

Council authorized rates of pay for election officials as follows: assistant deputy returning officers, $12 per day; poll clerks, $8 per day, and constables $7 per day.

Market stallholders' request for campaign time to speak on the market money bylaw drew from Ald. Bisset the cryptic comment, "What would they talk about—now?"

But council passed its election committee's recommendation that Mr. Finnemore be told that meetings are for candidates only—despite the fact that public utility commissioners killed the proposed market money bylaw.

Charge Follows Fatal Crash

Charge of manslaughter was laid against a city trucker in police court yesterday on a coroner's warrant.

Being held by city police is Gus Arndt, of 6520-104 street, following a head-on car-truck collision on the Calgary Trail Saturday night, which claimed the life of a city youth.

Dr. M. M. Cantor advised police to lay charges after a preliminary investigation Monday into the death of John Edward Parker, 21, of 14419-101 avenue.

Plea was reserved and accused was remanded to October 19.

Dr. Cantor late last night stated that he would discuss the manslaughter charge with Attorney-General Lucien Maynard today.

Ration Increased

WELLINGTON, Oct. 12.—(Reuters)—New Zealand's butter ration is to be increased from six to eight ounces a week from Oct 24, it was announced last night by Commerce Minister Arnold Nordmeyer.

A. C. Dempsey Dies In East; Well-Known Here

A well-known former resident of Edmonton, Alexander C. Dempsey, 77, died last night at Stratford, Ontario. He was engaged in the fruit business here before moving to Stratford eight years ago.

He had lived in Edmonton since 1905.

Mr. Dempsey was a member of the Masonic order and was active in the Oddfellows.

Predeceased by his wife, he is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Richard Fisher of Toronto. She is the former Lotta Dempsey, one-time Bulletin women's editor. He is also survived by brothers in Stratford and Tacoma.

He was born at Stratford and came to Edmonton from B.C.

Pioneer Farmer Is Buried Here

Funeral of Lewis Francis June, pioneer Namao district farmer, was held over the week-end from the Howard-McBride chapel.

Mr. June died in city hospital after an illness lasting eight weeks. He was 70 years of age.

Born in Chatham, Ont., he came to the Bon Accord district in the early 1900's. He owned a half section of land where Namao airport now stands.

STRESSING RESPONSIBILITY and challenge presented by problem child, Dr. George E. Selke, leading U.S. educational authority from University of Montana, addressed 750 teachers attending Edmonton Districts convention yesterday.

City's Growing Pains Tax School Capacity

Work will begin immediately on 15 new classrooms to ease overcrowding in Edmonton schools as the city experiences its worst growing pains.

Edmonton public school board reached this decision at a regular meeting at the Civic Block last night.

Only the fact that the meeting was the last before the civic elections next month prevented the board from taking immediate action on a gigantic school-building program which would have provided another 58 rooms.

The board approved an immediate start on seven portable school rooms, and on four-roomed additions to the Spruce Avenue school and to the new Inglewood school now under construction.

One portable classroom will be used at Delton and H. A. Gray schools, two will be used at Eastwood, and three at Queen Alexandra.

In addition four portable schools will be built before September, 1950, to bring the total number in use to 11.

SECOND ADDITION

Second four-roomed addition will be built to Spruce Avenue school and will likely open in September, 1950. A year ago a four-roomed addition was added to the same school, but at present two playrooms are being used for classrooms because of overcrowding.

Four-roomed addition will be included in the present construction of Inglewood school to bring accommodation to 12 rooms.

The school, now under construction, will open next September and will relieve congestion at Sherbrooke and Westmount schools.

Board went on record as favoring other school building recommendations by R. S. Sreppard, school superintendent, but moved to have the report considered at the first meeting of the new school board.

School board elections will be held during the civic elections on Nov. 2.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Recommendations favored were a four-room addition at Glenora, a two-room addition at Mill Creek, a four-room addition at Allendale, a four-room addition at Calder; a new eight-room elementary school in Victoria Place, 12-room elementary and junior high school in Glenora, a 12-room elementary school east of Rutherford, and a 12-room elementary and junior high school in Strathcona Place.

Plans for building a four or eight-room addition to the Delton school were held in abeyance.

Need for an early start on a new East End high school and one on the South Side was stressed. Plans for the two schools are now available.

Mr. Sheppard's report showed a 1,523 increase in the number of pupils in all city schools compared to the number a year ago. Biggest increase—1,189—occurs in the city's 37 elementary schools.

School board meeting also:

APPROVE INCREASE

Approved a 10 cent an hour increase to 65 cents an hour in school charwomen's wages.

Granted permission to the Edmonton Exhibition Association to house 50 boys and 50 girls in Cromdale school dormitories during Young People's Rally next Fair Week;

Recommended the appointment of an assistant to W. W. Butchart, architect and plant superintendent;

Approved the appointment of 13 full and part time school teachers and 14 night school teachers;

Approved the purchase of 600 new school desks, $1,239 worth of equipment for home economics classes at Victoria Composite High School and $8,925 worth of boys' shop equipment for the same school;

Accepted the tender of R. H. Palmer (Alta.) Ltd., to supply glass blocks worth $10,380 for Bellevue and Ingelwood schools;

Agreed to ask the city police department to supply motor cycle traffic patrols along the Stony Plain school route between 127 and 142 streets.

Prominent Lady Will Be Buried Here Today

Resident of Edmonton since 1916, Mrs. Gladys Myrtle McClung died in hospital Saturday. She was 62 years of age.

She was the widow of the late J. F. S. McClung, pioneer Edmonton optician.

Funeral will be held this afternoon from Howard-McBride Chapel at 2.00 p.m. Rev. Thomas L. Jackson will officiate.

Mrs. McClung is survived by two sons: Ronald of Edmonton and Lt. Alan McClung of the Royal Canadian Navy, serving on the east coast, and one brother, Russell of Cochrane, Ont.

There are also four grandchildren and a niece, Nellie McClung of Edmonton.

Controls Lifted

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Oct. 12.—Price controls on a wide range of foodstuffs were lifted by the Bermuda Supplies Commission here yesterday to end almost 10 years of government control.

City Council Has Praise For Mayor

Civic Officials Pay Tribute to Ainlay

In a half hour charged with deep emotion, the final meeting of Edmonton's 1949 city council last night paid moving tribute to the long service as mayor and alderman of Mayor Harry D. Ainlay and Alderman James Douglas.

Mayor Ainlay [illegible] under heavy emotional strain, said his decision not to seek re-election had been the most [illegible] of his lifetime. "It is going to be quite a wrench to separate myself from this city, but I shall never [illegible] interest in it."

[illegible]

"Not to my knowledge has [illegible] finger been pointed at any member with regard to [illegible] funds, and I have sat on council when members to my knowledge turned down [illegible] for arriving at certain decisions.

"They bluntly refused and arrived at their decisions on the basis of the best good of the city."

Mayor Ainlay paid [illegible] to the city's superintendents, city commissioners and particularly to City Solicitor Tom Garside, who he said had been of outstanding assistance in his four years as mayor.

BIG LOAD

"I hope [illegible] needless annoyance, because [illegible] will have plenty of load to carry. And I wish for this city the very best future," he said.

Ald. Douglas said Mayor Ainlay's services have been the best the city has ever had.

"Edmonton is the most progressive and most carefully administered city I know," he said.

Ald. George Gleave paid tribute to the mayor's tolerance and forbearance "when we have crossed swords," and to his integrity and character at all times.

Ald. H. E. Tanner recalled he had been first to sign Mayor Ainlay's nomination papers when he first ran for office, and said he had no regrets. "I don't know a mayor who has done as much as you, night and day, for the citizens of Edmonton," he said.

MUCH PROGRESS

Ald. R. F. L. Hanna said that, as youngest member in both years and service, he has always respected Mayor Ainlay's judgment, even when they disagreed. "The city's progress is due in large part to the fine service of both you and Ald. Douglas," he said.

Ald. Sid Parsons said he was sure citizens all appreciate the work done on their behalf by both Mayor Ainlay and Ald. Douglas.

OTHER TRIBUTES

Citizens have reason to be proud of Mayor Ainlay in whatever capacity he served, for his dignity and integrity, said Ald. Athelstan Bisset.

Ald. Fred Mitchell said the mayor had gone to great lengths to carry out instructions of council.

Ald. Sid Bowcott said electors had expressed, over the years, what they thought of both Mayor Ainlay and Ald. Douglas.

City Solicitor Tom Garside thought he would be remiss if he did not tell the mayor what his fellow department heads thought of him. "On no occasion have I ever seen you in any dealings with the city, put your political or other opinions before city interests."

UNENDING WORK of Canad[illegible]

Mounties Get Decorations

[illegible] presented to Corporals A. B. Johns and W. R. B[illegible] of Edmonton RCMP headquarters in a ceremonial parade at the barracks here yesterday.

Sgt. D. A. Dunlop of Wetaskiwin was also presented with a long service medal.

Polar Medal was presented ex-Special Const. L. G. Russell for service during a Northwest Passage trip between 1940 and 1944.

WHAT'S AHEAD for children learning through present teaching methods is hot subject at Edmonton District Teachers' convention as classroom heads discuss fitting students for adult life. Waxed Lilies Arrive For Fall Centrepiece

By Bea Thrifty

The last flowers of summer have faded and died. Once again ingenious homemakers like you and you and you are turning elsewhere for centrepiece ideas.

Well you don't have to turn very far now.

Seems there is a fine new shipment of some very natural-looking, very lovely wax lilies. They're gracefully sprayed on leaf arrangements and sell for prices ranging from $1.25 to $3.

There are artificial flowers . . . and artificial flowers.

Most are stiff, florid, unnatural specimens of some manufacturer's unartistic whim. But these hit the jackpot for centrepiece success.

More practical parleying brings discussion around to wool jersey blouses and the furor they've created in Edmonton shops.

Last week supplies were sorely depleted. Every fashion-wise woman in town had rushed to the nearest emporium to purchase same wool jersey blouses. By week-end you couldn't find one for love nor anything else.

* * *

But manufacturers have answered the demand and fresh quantities arrived yesterday.

A rich assortment of colors, sizes, styles and prices are available now. I'm partial to a Kelly green job myself. It has plain round neckline, dolman sleeves and buttons down the back. A smartie indeed for $9.95.

Another in beige and chocolate brown boasts short sleeves and tiny brown buttons trim for a sum total of $7.95.

* * *

At the expense of being repetitious . . . let's run through the various virtues of these jersey gems.

They're warm, washable . . . don't require pressing, mix 'n match delightfully with your own assortment of skirts 'n jackets.

Obviously . . . they're a complete success with sly ol' me.

* * *

I'm positively fit to be tied.

Winter partying is slipping into my schedule of leisure-time activities and I want a swish new formal frock.

The plan is to revitalize an old black evening skirt with an silver lame top. But do you suppose I can find even an old chewed up end of lame, silver or otherwise in this thriving metropolis?

No! No! No!

* * *

I shall see if I can't dig up some other suitable mate for black crepe.

Incidently, while I was pawing through reams and reams of lovely materials I spied a filmy georgette with silvery spangles splashed over it. This would make a delightful, ethereal sort of evening frock for a limpid-eyed blonde.

Too bad I'm a brown-eyed in-between.

* * *

Tasty tidbits for the sweet tooth are the newly arrived apple jellies all parcelled in minature apple boxes.

These sell at $1.25 per box.

Made in British Columbia, they're a taste treat.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Husbands Buy Peace At Price of Truth

A correspondent wants to know why husbands and wives habitually lie to each other.

The answer is obvious. Fear. Because they are afraid to tell the truth. Because bitter experience has taught them that the only way to avoid scenes and domestic rows is to lie.

Not many men and women are Ananiases and Sapphiras by nature. If they followed their instincts they would be Truthful Johns and Veracious Janes.

It degrades them in their own eyes and makes them feel mean and dishonest to [illegible] sort of double life and tell tall stories about where they have been and what they have done.

But when a man finds out that his wife will raise the roof if he tells her that he stayed downtown to [illegible] had to meet a buyer from Oshkosh, and when a woman discovers that her husband will raise cain if she tells him she paid $20 for a hat while he will commend her for being a good housekeeper if she says she spent $20 for groceries, why, you don't have to be told what they will do.

They will buy peace at the price of truth.

FORCED INTO IT

It is husbands and wives who make liars of each other. They literally drive their poor unfortunate mates into taking refuge behind a barricade of deceits and prevarications when they would far rather be out in the open.

Indeed, perhaps the thing that most married people crave above everything else and that they would rate above every other blessing would be the privilege of being perfectly frank and honest with each other.

It is a pity that truth is so heavily penalized in home life that only a few fortunate ones are able to use it. For nothing does more to stabilize matrimony and make it a success than for a husband and wife not to be compelled to have secrets from each other and tread all the dark and devious ways of the double-crosser.

Also, it is a great saving in wear and tear on the nerves not to have always to be covering up one's tracks and trying to remember the story one told last time and invent a new one. [illegible] talent and application and a skill which the average amateur does not possess.

There is something about having to lie about a situation that seems to develop it in some uncanny way.

For instance if Mr. A could tell his wife that he took his pretty secretary to lunch because she was easy to look at, and because she was bright and gay and amusing, that would in all probability be all there was of it.

Not even a mild flirtation. But when he has to take the girl out on the sly, and when he has to lie to his wife and furnish a false alibi for his whereabout, then it becomes a dark and romantic aventure, and things happen.

Rhubarb Pie Proves Best Bear Bait Yet

DAWSON CREEK, B.C.—(CP)—Take it from Mrs. Joe Dill of this northern community: rhubarb pie is the best bear bait.

A harrowing three hours alone in her cabin with freshly baked rhubarb pies and two bears made Mrs. Dill reach this conclusion.

Mrs. Dill's rhubarb pies—as so often happens with fruit pies — boiled over in the oven, giving off an aroma of brunt sugar that brought unexpected results.

It wasn't long before two huge grizzlies, both with noses sniffing the air, ambled out of the bush towards the cabin. Unarmed, Mrs. Dill used her voice to frighten off the grizzlies.

But two black bears arrived on the scene and paid no attention to [illegible] their faces.

For three hours they circled the cabin sniffing through windows as the pies boiled away. Return of Mr. Dill with a [illegible] chased off the curious bears.

Some species of beetles in the forests of British Guiana grow so large that naturalists hunt them with shotguns.

WOMEN who feel NERVOUS due to 'change of life'

Do you suffer hot flashes, weakness, nervous irritable cranky feelings, due to this functional disturbance? Then do try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms! It's a fine stomachic tonic, too!

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

IS EYEBROW LIFTING a common expression for you. Break that habit and go to work on those wrinkles as suggested by Josephine Lowman.

WHY GROW OLD

Eyebrow-Lifting Spoils Smooth, Youthful Skin

By Josephine Lowman

We cannot live without getting wrinkles and we cannot live with them, or at least we do not like to! Wrinkles come with the years because of the gradual lessening of the fat underneath the skin and the weathering and drying out process of the skin. Of course our facial expressions also have much to do with the wrinkles we acquire.

The wrinkles which most annoy women are horizontal lines on the forehead, a line between the brows over the nose, fine lines underneath the eyes and lines from nose to mouth. The habit of lifting the brows will cause the lines on the forehead; squinting will make those little lines under the eyes; frowning will cause the furrow between the brows; and a tense pessimistic downpull of the facial muscles which comes from worry or irritability will increase the lines from nose to mouth.

The best possible treatment for wrinkles is a fine health routine which includes exercise, a vital diet and plenty of sleep, plus daily lubrication of the skin, a happy disposition and good mental health. With these weapons you can delay the appearance of wrinkles and minimize those you already have.

I think you should be careful about removing cream from the face day after day. If you rub hard when taking it off, this is bad for a youthful contour. Remove gently and carefully, trying to avoid any stretching of the epidermis.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR THURSDAY, OCT. 13, 1949.

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Be moderate in commitments, less aggressively intense in action to benefit [illegible] progress. Exceptional [illegible]. Seek competent advice and retrench if in doubt.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—May be called upon to decide whether you and others should participate in special movement. Be careful, astute, sure you are doing the right thing. Don't allow sentiment to sway you.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Day made to your liking, but still there can be setbacks, disappointments if you are not sound and sagacious. P.M. likely most difficult to handle; you are forewarned!

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—You can obtain more satisfactory results by remaining calm, regardless of outside contention. Planetary trend points to better possibilities after 2 p.m. Romance leading.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Your zodiacal outlook suggests you approach things in self-sacrificing attitude. You may suffer some wrongs momentarily—we all do—but day's end will find a happier, wiser you.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Some variable conditions before you today. Use an-ounce-of-prevention-is-worth-a-pound-of-cure motto. You generally have the solution; have faith in your ability.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—By evening you should be well on the way to a successful day. Stars favorable to most earnest efforts, but you must make the best of opportunity now. Heart interests favored.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—No need to cast eyes longingly on other pastures; yours is as happy as can be, and as fertile. Concentrate on intimate matters, family and useful social affairs.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—Rather tricky, but still a productive day. Prime essential is not to oversell self and under-estimate other fellow. In p.m. relax, seek some healthful diversion.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Temper your trys with forethought, good business sense and you can achieve more. Quality will outdo haste and quantity. Angle, but with honest gains in mind.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Aspects place you "on the spot," as it were. The thinker, one who judges wisely, will obtain the coveted. May find new media for your ideas, and in unexpected ways. Look sharp!

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Indications excellent. Choice of [illegible] is the balancing point. Strong impetus should come from family, loved ones; appreciate all aid. Use your gifts.

You born today—Love beauty in all forms, and harmony; are just in mode of living. Many musicians, poets, actors, painters, professional people born under Libra. Fond of home, children, help keep domestic life serene. Saturn influential when you were born, you may be led through some trials, but to ultimate happiness if you maintain faith. Tendency to moods—too depressed, too elated at times. Aim at a happy medium in all things. Don't dissipate health, protect sanely kidneys, stomach, knees. Birthdate: John, Baron Hervey, of Ickworth, English statesman, writer.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Child Taught to Avoid Dangerous Roughness

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

What do parents do when playmates injure their children? There is little doubt but that as soon as children go out to play in groups—or even with one companion—that certain play practices, or general roughness, may lead to injury of a serious or trivial nature.

Parents have the deepest obligation to teach their children carefulness in play. This means that from the very beginning of their play experiences, they must know that they cannot wield sticks and cannot throw stones or other hard and possibly lethal objects.

The mother must make a real issue of this and when she finds playmates so engaged, she must break up play instantly with full explanations.

Children who chronically play too roughly should be ostracized from the group. There is no more telling penalty, for children want to be liked and want to play and if their ways are disagreeable, they will alter them.

It must be taken for granted by parents that in any group, in just ordinary play and with no malicious intent, a child is apt to be hurt. He may fall from a swing that was pushed unexpectedly; or fall on the hard cement, or against a woody bush. Some child may, in inept handling of tools or playthings, inflict some injury. These things are inevitable and most of us carry some scar on face or body because of these accidental injuries.

Children cannot be kept in the house, or away from playmates just because injuries in play are possible. These belong among the natural hazards of living and must be taken care of as they occur, without animosity toward anyone or the tendency to want to shield the child unwisely.

When an injury is inflicted with malice and intent to hurt, then parents are responsible for the wound suffered by the injured child. They should be not only morally, but financially, responsible for it, for they have failed to teach their children proper play manners and have not guarded other children from their uncontrollable tempers. If they are made responsible they will take their obligations more seriously.

Our leaflet No. 57, "Children's Quarrels," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Skippy's OK

VANCOUVER—(CP)—Neighborhood children were worried after John Prouse's little wire-haired terrier, Skippy, was found bleeding from a shot in the back. But now Skippy is back from the dog hospital and is "coming along fine." His master still doesn't know who shot Skippy.

Experts Don't Guess It Right Every Time

By William E. McKenney

Chicago has two of the greatest rubber bridge players in the country, Arthur Glatt and Albert Weiss. After playing today's hand in the recent knockout team-of-four match in Chicago, Weiss remarked that there would be more tournament players in the country if they realized that the experts do not always get into the correct contract.

Pass	2 ♠	Pass	3 ♣

Opening—♦ 3 12

Not many of us would have the nerve to redouble the three club contract as Weiss (East) did, holding only three clubs. I have an idea that he was hoping that his partner would take the hand back to either three spades or three hearts. However, it is the play of the hand that is most interesting.

The opening lead of the three of diamonds was won in dummy with the ace. Now Weiss led a small spade to his ace and cashed the ace and king of hearts, discarding two diamonds from dummy. Then he ruffed a small heart with the three of clubs and cashed dummy's king and queen of spades, discarding two diamonds from his own hand. A small diamond was led and ruffed by declarer with the eight of clubs. South over-ruffed with the ten, and led back a small club which Weiss won with the king. Then he played a heart, and there was nothing South could do that would prevent Weiss from making the jack of clubs and the ace of clubs. Thus he made four-odd on the hand and scored 1,190 points.

Tobe on Fashion—

The Velvet Fashion Takes In Coats Too

As you know by now, it's the biggest velvet season in years—velvet dresses, velvet hats, velvet bags, velvet blouses, velvet gloves, velvet suits. Now we have velvet-trimmed coats, too, and I think these are almost our smartest winter coat fashion.

They are nearly always fitted, and in broadcloth with velvet collars, cuffs, pocket flaps, or handsome velvet frog fastenings. A velvet-trimmed coat need not always be black, either. It is smart in colors, too — either with matching velvet trim as on navy or brown or contrasting as black velvet on grey or bright red.

Cut in Strictures On Sterling Asked

Concessions Necessary For Immigrants, Hooke Reports

Exchange concessions are required if immigration of Britishers to Alberta is to be maintained at its present rate.

This is the opinion expressed by Hon. A. J. Hooke, provincial [illegible] who today released a [illegible] report on immigration developments in the province since establishment of Alberta House in 1948.

"Restrictions placed on transfer of capital from sterling to dollar areas, together with the devaluation of sterling itself are hampering the free movement of immigrants from the United Kingdom to Canada," Mr. Hooke said.

"If British immigration is to be maintained in spite of restrictions over which the Alberta government has no control, some concessions or special assistance appears to be necessary," the minister said.

ASK BRITISH ASSISTANCE

Devaluation of the pound has reduced the amount of money Britishers can bring to Canada from $1,000 Canadian currency to $770 each per year.

As no special concessions can be made by the Alberta government counteracting the devaluation situation in the case of immigrants would be the responsibility of the British authorities, Mr. Hooke said.

In spite of restrictions, 7,000 immigrants who came to Alberta from the British Isles in 1948 brought with them $5,000,000. Their yearly contribution to Alberta economy amounts to about $6,000,000.

About 4,000 immigrants have come to the province from the British Isles this year to date.

With the 11,000 Britishers who have arrived in Alberta since April, 1948, immigrants of all other nationalities brought the total of new residents to 14,700.

HOUSING IS PROBLEM

Majority of British immigrants have arranged passage through Alberta House, the provincial immigration office opened in April, 1948, by the Alberta government.

In screening and accepting British immigrants, immigration authorities must be satisfied that skills of the new residents are in demand in Alberta and no unskilled laborers are sponsored.

Provincial housing shortage has been considered and only those families guaranteed accommodation by relatives, friends or sponsoring firms are accepted.

Single persons and young married business couples are acceptable with less investigation as accommodation for them is easier to obtain, Mr. Hooke said.

Immigrants who have no contacts or special skills to affect settlement decisions, are encouraged to settle in towns or villages of the province where housing and establishment facilities are more plentiful.

Highway Meet Slated Oct. 27

CBC Power Seen Retarding Radio

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12.—(CP)—A protest against power of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to regulate activities of privately-owned radio stations was contained in a brief presented today by radio station CKRC of Winnipeg to the Massey Commission.

The royal commission, touring the west to conduct an investigation into Canadian development in the field of arts, letters and sciences began the second day of its three-day Winnipeg hearing.

The CKRC brief termed the regulatory powers of the CBC "not only unfair, but a definite retarding influence on the progress of broadcasting in this country." The brief cited two particular regulations.

The first bans commercial spot announcements in evening hours. This ban, the brief contended, precluded the small advertiser from reaching an evening audience and handicaps him against the larger advertiser who can afford a 15 or 30-minute program.

EARNINGS CURTAILED

It took issue also with the ban on mention of prices on the air rescinded in 1948. "The point here," the brief said, "was not that a situation has been corrected but that an undesirable situation, from everyone's point of view, was allowed to exist for a great number of years.

"These two regulations have been barriers to better broadcasting through curbing earnings, and consequently, operations and programming of privately-owned stations."

Briefs by the CBC prairie region and a joint brief from interested organizations and agencies in Manitoba representing the provincial government, the university, federation of agriculture, radio, newspapers, libraries, drama, art [illegible] tions were also heard by the commission in today's session.

The CBC brief outlined the great [illegible] of network operation in the prairie regions and its work in the field of farm, talks, news [illegible] and other broadcasts. The brief recommended formation of a national arts board, establishment of national scholarships and [illegible]

Larger national grants for the national museum and support of branch museums and a travelling museum.

Establishment of a United Nations commission to establish a link between UN agencies and federal and provincial governments and voluntary organizations.

Expansion of the activities of the national film board.

That larger revenues be made available to the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for the development of cultural and educational programs.

MORE MONEY THAN EVER

Healthy, Wealthy, Wise? Well, Wealthy at Least

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—If wealth is a criterion of happiness, then Canadians should be happier than at any time in history.

They earned $11,833,000,000 last year—more money than ever before, including the free-spending days of the Second World War.

As computed by the Bureau of Statistics, the personal incomes were particularly high in Ontario.

In that industrial province earnings last year amounted to $4,619,000,000. This was interpreted by the statisticians in the annual summary of incomes and expenditures as being an average of $1,075 for each person in the province.

It compared with the per-capita earnings of $1,024 by British Columbia, $950 by the prairies, $784 by Quebec and $653 by the maritimes.

Ontario had the highest income but this did not necessarily mean that the province was enjoying the highest standard of living.

Prices fluctuated between provinces. Because demand was high and people had the means to pay prices may be higher in Ontario than in other areas.

The statisticians also were quick to point out that direct comparisons between highly industrial areas and predominantly rural parts are misleading.

Ontario, increased personal income from $1,534,000,000 to $4,619,000,000; Manitoba, $288,000,000 to $716,000,000; Saskatchewan $395,000,000 to $798,000,000; Alberta, $298,000,000 to $844,000,000; British Columbia from $338,000,000 to $1,132,000,000.

The Dominion, taken as a whole, climbed from $4,023,000,000 in 1938 to $11,883,000,000.

RECORD MAKING GIFT to Edmonton Community Chest, $10,000 donation from Civic Employes' Welfare Fund was collected under supervision of committee members here: from left, back row: F. C. Ockenden; E. Hillary, M. P. Flowers, M. Ainslie, and (front) J. Pollock, J. A. Staton and J. E. Peterson. Gift was largest single contribution received by Chest since its inception.

Contests Assured Oct. 24 As 24 Named for 8 Seats

OTTAWA, Oct. 12—(CP)—Contests are assured in eight Oct. 24 federal by-elections, the first to be held since the general election June 27.

When nominations closed today 24 persons had filed their names as candidates in the by-elections occasioned by the death of two members of the Commons and the appointment of six others to new posts.

Present standing of the Commons is:

Liberals 186; Progressive Conservatives 40; CCF, 13. Social Credit 10 Independent four Independent Liberal, one, vacant eight; total 262.

FIVE IN QUEBEC

Five of the vacancies are in Quebec—Montreal Mercier, Montreal Laurier Montreal, Jacques Cartier Kamouraska and Gatineau. The others are Toronto Greenwood, New Westminster in British Columbia and Restigouche-Madawaska in New Brunswick.

The Liberals are contesting all seats but the Progressive Conservatives—the official opposition in the Commons—named candidates in only three ridings.

Here is a list of by-elections and candidates:

Gatineau—J. Celestin Nadon of Maniwaki, former member of the Quebec legislature, Liberal; Anastase St. Jean of Low, Progressive Conservative, and Marcel Bernard Bonnier of Ironsides, Independent.

MONTREAL SEATS

Montreal Mercier—Marcel Monette, Liberal, Wilfred Latraverse, Independent Liberal; Leon Bertrand, Independent.

Montreal Laurier—J. E. Lefrancois, Liberal, Emile Naud, Independent Liberal; Pierre Gelinas, Labor-Progressive.

Montreal Jacques Cartier—Sarto Marchand, Liberal; Edgar Leduc, Independent.

Kamouraska—Gerard Levesque, Liberal, and Arthur Masse, Independent Liberal.

Toronto Greenwood—Perry Ryan, Liberal; J. M. Macdonnell, Progressive Conservative; Harvey Hetrum, CCF; Mrs. Louise Watson, Labor-Progressive.

B. C. CONTEST

New Westminster—William Malcolm Mott, former mayor of New Westminster, Liberal; James Christmas, Progressive Conservative, Ronald William Irvine, CCF; Maurice Rush, Labor-Progressive; Elmore Philpott, Vancouver newspaper columnist, Independent.

Appointment to the Senate of Thomas Reid, Liberal holder of the seat since 1930, caused the vacancy.

Restigouche-Madawaska—J. Albert Pichette, Edmunston barrister, Liberal; and Paul L. Dube, Edmunston locomotive engineer, Independent Liberal.

ESPERANTO IS KID TALK

WHITBURN, Durham, Eng.—Oct. 12—(AP)—Parents have formed a language class here so they can understand their children.

Pupils at a local progressive school learn esperanto, a man-made international language. The youngsters have taken to using it in conversation when they don't want mom and pop to eavesdrop.

WOMAN CONFESSES

Feared Husband Losing Mind, Shoots Him Dead

KNOXVILLE, Ia., Oct. 12—(UP)—A 45-year-old farm wife admitted today she killed her husband, shooting him six times in the head as he slept, because she feared he was "losing his mind."

Mrs. Frances Gasparovich shot her husband, John, 54, Monday night and then walked a quarter mile to a general store in the midnight darkness to call authorities.

Deputies found her waiting for them, sitting on the doorstep of her home.

She told Sheriff Jim Van Hemert that she attempted suicide twice after killing her husband. First, she held the gun to her head but lacked courage to pull the trigger. An attempt to hang herself from a barn rafter also failed.

County attorney William Hardin said she would be arraigned on charges of murder.

"I used a flashlight to light up his face as I fired," Mrs. Gasparovich said.

A note which the farm woman had intended as a last message to her family read:

"I can't stand it any more. I'm going to kill us both. Please, dear loved ones, always believe in God and attend church as often as possible . . . please, God almighty, forgive me."

In her admission of the killing, Mrs. Gasparovich said her husband had appeared to be going insane. She said he had threatened her and other members of the family and that she lived in fear of him.

"He drove me to it," she said.

The couple had two children, George, 26, a mail carrier, and Mrs. Edward Phillips, a farmer's wife.

22 Nominations For Man. Vote

Constituencies Changed For November 10 Contest

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12.—(CP)—With the official close of nominations slated for Oct. 27, 22 candidates have been named to contest the 57 seats in the Manitoba provincial general election Nov. 10.

The election machinery this year was changed to increase the legislature's membership from 55, excluding the three service seats, and to redistribute the seats. The service seats now have disappeared.

TWO MORE IN CITY

Winnipeg, which formerly elected 10 members, now has three ridings, each of which will elect four. The St. Boniface riding has been increased from one to two members; a new suburban Winnipeg constituency of Kildonan-Transcona created, with one member; rural seat of Glenwood was eliminated, and the constituencies of Norfolk and Beautiful Plains merged.

The election was called by Premier Douglas L. Campbell, head of the 38-member coalition, which is predominantly Liberal-Progressive and Progressive-Conservative.

NOMINATIONS SO FAR

Winnipeg North (four seats): Donald Callis (CLN-LP), Ald. Frank Chester (CLN-LP), John M. Kozoriz (CLN-LP).

Winnipeg Centre (four seats): John McNeil (O—Lab-Prog).

St. Boniface (two seats): J. Van Bellekhen (CLN-LP), E. Rupert Gagnon (O—CCF), E. D. Hansford (O—CCF), Gladstone P. Shearer (CLN-LP).

Kildonan-Transcona: M. J. G. McMullen (CLN-LP), George Olive (O-CCF).

Gilbert Plains: Jack Schultz (O-CCF).

Dauphin: G. I. Jackman (O-CCF).

Rockwood: Hugh Proctor (O-CCF).

The Pas: F. L. Jobin (CLN-LP), Beresford Robert Richards (O-IND).

Ethelbert: N. Hryhoeczuk (CLN-LP), Fred Zaplitny (O-CCF).

Roblin: M. W. Cryderman (O-CCF).

At Least 25 Die in Wreck

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 12.—(AP)—At least twenty five persons were killed and more than 100 were injured in a collision of a freight train and a resort-bound passenger train just before midnight here last night.

Most of the casualties in the train wreck were in the second-class sections, into which the incoming freight train plowed head-on.

The passenger train, bound for the summer resort of Tigre, had left the station seven minutes behind schedule. The freight train was coming into Buenos Aires.

Lawyer Joins Client In Jail; Drug Is Seized

CALGARY, Oct. 12.—(CP)—A Calgary criminal lawyer, J. C. Poffenroth,, was arrested by police Tuesday night after he was caught trying to smuggle what police believe to be a drug capsule to a prisoner in the cells at headquarters. He was charged under the Opium and Narcotic Drug Act, and was due to appear in police court today.

The lawyer was placed in the cell block following questioning by police officials. No bail was set.

PARKING SLUG TO SAVE CENT COSTS $22.50

CALGARY, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Arnold Reid was called before Magistrate G. H. Rose today to explain why he had deposited a slug in a parking meter, instead of a penny. Reid pleaded guilty but had nothing to say for himself.

"I hope you feel as small and petty as this offence is, Reid," said Magistrate Rose who fined him $20 and assessed him $2.50 costs or 30 days, after he had been told 40 to 50 slugs a week are taken from the meters.

Auto Dealers Name Prexy

MONTREAL, Oct. 12—(CP)—The Federation of Automobile Dealer Associations of Canada last night chose its executive for next year, electing Stanley S. Rafuse of Bridgewater, N.S., president.

The federation's annual convention, with nearly 1,000 delegates in attendance, ends today.

Last night, traffic conditions were discussed at a convention session with G. A. C. Beard of Toronto declaring the federation must start concentrating on town planning methods in order to offer advice on elimination of overflow traffic conditions in Canadian cities.

Toronto and Montreal drew special mention as cities where traffic problems are acute.

H. B. Walker of St. Catharines, Ont., was named secretary and Dave Amory of Montreal treasurer.

The board of directors for next year includes: Ross Baker, Vancouver; Charles Bryant, Lethbridge, Alta.; Thomas Guest, Saskatoon; J. T. Russel, Fort William.

Singer's Death Laid To Pilot

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A coroner's jury yesterday criticized the pilot of a plane which crashed Oct. 1 and killed singer Buddy Clark, 38, for "lack of proper care and caution." Its verdict called the death accidental. Pilot James Hayter has been grounded pending a civil aeronautics board hearing.

Cripps Warns British Job Planning Likely

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Sir Stafford Cripps served notice on British workers today that some may have to give up their present jobs and go to work in dollar-earning industries.

"We now have a greatly improved opportunity to get into the dollar markets, which we must seize," the Chancellor of the Exchequer told a press conference. "That will undoubtedly entail some change in our pattern of employment."

GOVERNMENT RIGHT

During the war the government exercised the right to direct British working men and women into jobs where they were most needed

The government still has the right but has not been using it. Sir Stafford did not say that it intends to use it again, but he did say:

"Full employment does not and can never mean that every individual job is guaranteed for as long as the present occupant wishes to stay in it. That would be industrial stagnation."

EMPLOYMENT UP

Employment in Britain at the end of July totalled 22,200,000, excluding members of the armed forces, the Chancellor said. This is one per cent greater than a year ago. The number of unemployed is around 300,000.

Sir Stafford said production in Britain is rising steadily. For the last 12 months, he said, it has jumped 25 per cent, compared with the 1946 average.

PIGGY CAN'T GO TO MARKET

KINGSTON, Ont., Oct. 12—(CP)—There are too many pigs on Kingston sidewalks to suit most residents.

Because of complaints in recent months about crates of live pigs being placed on the sidewalks close to the entrance of buildings near the market, city council has ruled that live pigs may no longer be sold on the city market.

Nylon in Joint Arthritis Aid

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Strips of nylon costing about seven cents apiece may make walking possible for thousands of persons now crippled by arthritis, in the opinion of two Boston doctors.

Doctors John G. Kuhns and Theodore A. Potter reported successful kneejoint operations last night by a method known as "nylon arthroplasty."

They produced as exhibits three patients all of whom were able to walk normally.

Dr. Kuhns said that he and Dr Potter resorted to nylon in an effort to turn up a durable substance to place between the femur (thigh bone) and the knee bone of persons crippled by arthritis.

Previously, muscle tissle, metallic plates and other substances had been used in efforts to maintain functioning separation of knee bones that tended to grow together.

"The operation takes about an hour and is not a difficult one," Dr. Kuhns said. "The nylon is sewn on and wherever we have to crease or pleat it, we pass a cautery, which works like a soldering iron, over the fold."

3 Promotions Made in RCN

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Promotion of three chief petty officers to the acting rank of warrant engineer, was announced today by naval headquarters. Promoted are Thomas Mace, 37, of Stratford, Ont.; Maurice M. Locke, 33, of Winnipeg, and Edward Burnett, 36, of Victoria.

At the same time naval headquarters announced that Mr. Mace, formerly serving aboard the destroyer Crescent, has been appointed for duty with the senior officer reserve fleet, west coast. Mr. Burnett goes from the cruiser Ontario to duties with the superintendent of the dockyard, Esquimalt, B.C. Mr. Locke also goes to Esquimalt from the destroyer Athabascan.

No permit is required by Alberta anglers to fish in Cold Lake, where a program is under way to stock the lake with speckled trout.

Commons Passes Abolition Bill

Senate OK, Royal Assent Will End London Appeals

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—A bill abolishing appeals to the judicial committee of the Privy Council, the first piece of major legislation introduced at the current session, was passed yesterday by the Commons.

The legislation, now subject to three readings by the Senate before it can become law, was approved after objections by some opposition members who sought either to have it shelved for six months or to have it amended in some particulars.

"ON DIVISION"

No formal vote was called but Progressive Conservatives shouted "on division" to signify opposition to adoption of the measure, one of several bills on the order paper when the government dissolved the last session and called a general election for June 27.

Leading the opposition's fight was T. L. Church (PC-Toronto, Broadview), a veteran member noted for criticism of legislation likely to loosen Canadian ties with the "Empire."

He fought through part of two sittings to have formal approval delayed until today. In the end he protested in vain that Speaker Ross Macdonald and Deputy Speaker Alfred Dion had not put to the house a motion he had submitted during the discussion.

He said the motion asked either that the bill be given a six-month hoist or that it be referred back to the committee of the whole house. A motion to give a bill a six-month hoist is usually aimed at "killing" the legislation.

MEMBERS RAISED

Because of the overwhelming Liberal membership in the Senate political observers believe the measure will run into little opposition there. When it becomes law, the Supreme Court of Canada will be the country's last court of appeal on all matters. The court's membership will be increased from seven to nine to handle the extra work.

JAP GROUP UP IN CLOUDS

TOKYO, Oct. 12.—(Reuters)—A new Japanese sect led by a woman named Jikosan, who claims to be a reincarnation of the Sun goddess, have formally demanded exemption from taxes because they are "divine personalities living high above the clouds."

Britain Ups Export Sales

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Britain sharply increased her export sales to United States in September — even without the lure of cheaper dollar prices caused by sterling devaluation.

The board of trade reported tonight September sales to United States were £4,100,000 ($16,400,000 at the pre-devaluation rate of exchange) compared with sales of £3,300,000 in August.

The pound was devalued Sept. 18, transactions at the new rate began Sept. 20.

The September debit on foreign trade fell to the lowest figure since last March — but Britain still bought £35,800,000 more than its exported goods would pay for.

Full Fees Asked In Indian Cases

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12.—(CP)—The government's practice of not adequately covering the cost of Indian patients has to be halted, Dr. O. C. Trainer, chairman of the Manitoba Hospital Association told delegates to the association's 28th annual meeting yesterday.

"We must stand together and refuse to treat such cases, other than emergencies, unless the government is prepared to pay the full costs," he said.

Lack Of Cargo Ties 10 Ships

HALIFAX, Oct. 12—(CP)—Ten ships, five owned by Acadia Overseas Freighters Ltd. of Halifax, are tied up here for lack of cargoes. The 7,192-ton freighter Seaboard Ranger, owned by Triton Steamship Company of Montreal, arrived yesterday and became the 10th.

Shipping officials said high operating costs, stiff foreign competition and the recent devaluation of the Canadian dollar have contributed to the sharp decline in Canadian shipping.

MUSIC FESTIVALS TRY TO AID APPRECIATION

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12. — (CP) — Canadians generally may not be considered a particularly musical nation, but the musical festival movement is doing its utmost to change that.

A brief submitted to the Massey Commission on Arts, Letters and Sciences by the Federation of Canadian Musical Festivals here today showed that the 94 annual festivals now on record in the Dominion attract approximately 300,000 individual competitors.

These competitors form the 30,000 entries that comprise the festivals. An entry may include any number from a soloist to an entire choir.

The federation estimates the total audience at 600,000, although it is kept down by the limited size of available halls.

The festivals range from two or three-day affairs in rural areas, using one adjudicator, to the lengthy Manitoba festival. This event, often referred to as the "Doctor, before you start he says he wants to increase his pledge to the Community Chest."

AIR MARSHAL W. A. Curtis, Chief of the Air Staff, RCAF, shakes hands with F/L L. F. Doucet after presenting him with Long Service and Good Conduct Medal at a one man investiture at NWAC headquarters here Sunday.

Vet's Varsity Allowance Is Ruled Taxable Income

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—The income tax appeal board has ruled that federal allowances paid to veterans attending university are income for taxation purposes.

In a judgment made public today, the board ruled that the allowances, while tax free, can prevent the wife of a veteran from getting the tax of a married person supporting a husband or wife.

The board rejected the appeal of Mrs. Celia Bergart of Toronto against her assessment for 1947 when her husband, an RCAF veteran, was attending Osgoode Hall law school.

PART-TIME WORK

Mrs. Bergart worked as a stenographer while her husband took classes and worked part-time as a clerk in a law office. During the year he earned $312 in the law office and got $720 from the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Mrs. Bergart claimed the $720 could not be considered income and she was a married person who supported her husband and was entitled to an exemption of $1,500.

In similar decisions, two members of the board, Fabio Monet and W. S. Fisher, ruled that parliament had intended the allowances as income. In a minority decision, board chairman R. T. Graham said he believed the allowances were a capital grant, not income, and that Mrs. Bergart's appeal should be allowed in part.

Wife-Beating On Increase

HAMILTON, Oct. 12.—(CP) — Miss Murial Milligan, superintendent of the Wentworth Children's Aid Society, in her regular report to the last meeting of the board of directors, deplored the seriousness of the assaults on women by their husbands in the last few months. Quite a number of these cases had been reported.

"Assault is a common enough charge in family court," she said. "Certainly a social worker becomes used to the fact that women are often beaten by their husbands and court charges follow, but whether the intense heat of the summer was a contributing factor or what was to blame, the fact remains that the women have been badly beaten up —more so than I have even known in my experience with family case work."

Ottawa Offers To Buy Utility

OTTAWA, Oct. 12.—(CP)—The Ottawa hydro electric commission voted yesterday to buy the privately-owned Ottawa Light, Heat and Power Company for $7,600,000. The offer will be considered by company shareholders Friday.

The city has been negotiating for purchase of the company since 1944 when the municipally-owned commission suggested merging the two separate systems serving the capital area.

No Inquest Into Death Of Miner

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 12—No inquest will be held into the death of Joseph Tamasi, 45, miner at the Midland Mine, found dead Saturday along the railway two miles north of Midland station.

Death, it was disclosed, was by strangulation. Cst. R. C. Morris and Cst. R. W. Creelman, RCMP investigated. The body was discovered by a section crew.

LOVE THOSE DOCUMENTS!

LONDON, Oct. 12—(CP)—Russia last night claimed another first.

The Moscow Radio said the world's first floating drydock was built in Russia at the start of the 18th century.

This has been proved the radio said, by documents just found in Leningrad.

Wife Is Arrested As Husband Knifed

SARNIA, Ont., Oct. 12.—(CP)—A husband-and-wife dispute last night aboard a lake freighter as it lay at anchor here resulted in Ben Kenyon, 34, being taken to hospital with knife gashes in the abdomen and Margaret Kenyon, 35, being arrested on a charge of wounding.

Another big night on the radio.

Manitoba Loses One Of Last U.K. Appeals

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(CP)—The judicial committee of the privy council today ruled in favor of the William Wrigley, Jr., Company, Limited, in a 10-year-old income tax dispute between the company and the provincial treasurer of Manitoba.

The Manitoba treasury had claimed that under the Manitoba income taxation act only the provincial government had the power to make a tax assessment.

The privy council rejected an appeal by the Manitoba provincial treasurer against a judgment of the supreme court of Canada made June 18, 1947. The supreme court's judgment was that income tax assessments made upon Wrigley's by the provincial treasurer for the years 1936-39 were excessive.

Announcing the privy council's decision, Lord Radcliffe said the provincial treasurer must pay the costs of appeal including Wrigley's costs.

COMPARE TO SASKATCHEWAN

Lord Radcliffe said there was no dispute as to what was the issue between the parties or as to the facts to which the issue related. Wrigley's was a dominion company having its head office and manufacturing plant in Ontario and a branch office and warehouse in Manitoba.

In the Manitoba warehouse was stored chewing gum manufactured in Ontario. While orders for chewing gum were received at the Manitoba branch office, payment for the chewing gum supplied was made to the head office in Ontario.

Wrigley's rightly maintained that in the assessment of its profits in Manitoba under the Manitoba Income Taxation Act, an allowance should be made for "manufacturing profit" in Ontario.

The provincial treasurer's argument was that no such allowance should be made to the taxpayer and that net profits arising from sales in Manitoba were taxable in Manitoba.

Lord Radcliffe said the questions raised in the provincial treasurer's appeal were similar to questions recently answered by the privy council in the case of International Harvester Company of Canada, Limited, versus the Saskatchewan provincial tax commission.

Canada is ending appeals to the Privy Council. This is one of the last it will hear.

Refugees Head To Hong Kong

HONG KONG, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Refugees by the thousands poured into this already jam-packed British crown colony today from Communist-threatened Canton.

Scores of vessels, launches and Chinese junks spilled out hundreds on the shores of either Hong Kong or the adjacent British-leased territory of Kowloon.

Others filled trains moving steadily over the border from China into Kowloon. Chinese airlines shuttled between Canton's airport and Hong Kong as quickly as they could load and unload.

FOREIGNERS FLEE

Foreigners joined in the flight from Canton, flickering capital of the Nationalist government. Diplomats came here either to stay or on brief visits before going on to Chungking, the new refugee capital.

British Consul-General J. P. Coghill said he and his staff of 10 intended to remain in Communist-threatened Canton no matter what happens.

Coghill, called from here, by telephone, said Canton is outwardly calm and orderly

Plot Denied By Spellman

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman, on his arrival from Rome early today, denied a Soviet charge that he had given $30,000 to Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty to finance a plot against the Communist regime in Hungary.

Cardinal Spellman said the New York archdiocese had distributed several million dollars in Europe, but that the money was only for relief, and was sent through accredited agencies.

He added "If for $30,000 democracy with its freedoms could be secured in any of the countries under Soviet domination, all our soldiers and their relatives would know that it was the greatest bargain since Manhattan was bought from the Indians."

Wife Wants $100 a Week

DETROIT, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Pete Horeck, 26-year-old forward for the Boston Bruins, was accused today by his wife of beating her so severely six months after they were married that she required extensive [illegible]. Mrs. Anne Horeck filed suit for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Horeck charged that her husband, a former Detroit Red Wing who was traded to Boston last summer, was miserly and failed to support her although he received $10,000 a season. She said he also had other income as an automobile salesman.

She charged that since they separated Sept. 22, he has given her only $50. She is seeking temporary and permanent alimony of $100 a week.

Six Tribesmen Slain In Lebanon Fight

CAIRO, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The Arab news agency reported last night that a gun battle in northern Lebanon between two rival tribes resulted in six killed and scores wounded before troops restored peace.

The report said a dispute over Hashish—an intoxicant prepared from Indian hemp—touched off the [illegible]

Versatile Mrs. Evans Combines Writing-Art

New Zealand Artist Prefers Symbolic Painting for Expression

By Frances Geddes

Radio script writer turned artist is the story of Mrs. Gwytha Evans, young New Zealand painter who is art instructor for the department of extension at the University of Alberta.

Married to a third-year engineering student, Ronald Evans, Mrs. Evans came to her job in Edmonton last February.

At the time she was doing radio work in Christ Church several years ago, she felt it was "her work" but now she has made art her career and doesn't want to go back to writing.

Since she could hold a pencil in her hands, she has wanted to draw. And she did—on everything she could see. "I was a positive menace in the house," she says.

Recognized now as a leading artist, Mrs. Evans graduated from Canterbury University Art College.

PREFERS SYMBOLIC

At home in every medium and type, she prefers symbolic painting. To her, symbolic painting has a meaning behind it—it's painted from the inside out. There must be an idea to start from.

Taking a look at an example of her work, this is easy to understand. She has sketched something she calls "Storm," a group of abandoned figures swinging on the ribbons of a maypole. The idea came to her as she was walking through a park just after the city's freak hail storm in the spring.

"That's what art is," she explains. "Ideas come when you're doing everyday things."

She does still life and scenics too. Recently commissioned to do a portrait in B.C., she seldom visits anywhere where she is not asked to paint someone's portrait. She'll paint anyone who takes her fancy. "But," she says, "it must be someone with depth of character in the face."

In her job, Mrs. Evans travels to small towns in northern Alberta and finds people of all types and walks of life who have one thing in common—a love of art and a keen desire to express that love in painting.

Some women she meets have little opportunity for recreation and extension art classes provide their one chance to relax from everyday tension and strain.

TEACHES NOVICES

Many pupils have never touched a brush before. Mrs. Evans is teaching a little boy of nine as well as many men and women of 60 or older.

Mothers often bring their children to classes. They take lunches and manage to make picnics out of the occasions. This attitude—this idea that art can be taken along naturally with the rest of life—is something to be found nowhere else but here, Mrs. Evans thinks.

In Canada, she finds, there is less academic approach to art, than in her own New Zealand. Here only for seven months, she doesn't feel she can make too many sweeping statements on Canadian art.

Dr. Hitschmanova Praises WI Groups For Gift Of $1,500

Words of praise for Alberta Women's Institutes were given today by Dr. Lotta Hitschmanova for their contribution of $1,500 for artificial limbs for war-deformed children.

Dr. Hitschmanova, executive director of Unitarian Service Committee in Ottawa, is in Edmonton on her way to British Columbia for a tour of WI's there when she will give 27 talks.

Returned a month ago from visiting eight countries in Europe, she reported even harder times for those without money, especially children and refugees.

There are 15,000 amputee cases among children in Italy, she says, while conditions in Greece are almost as bad. USC is beginning a campaign to help these unfortunates and Dr. Hitschmanova is speaking on their behalf.

IN AN EARLY evening ceremony at Norwood United Church, Jean Marion Taylor became the bride of George Arthur MacDonald. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Taylor of Edmonton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. MacDonald of Wainwright. —Photo by Hoiser Studios

Mavis Joan Appleton Weds in Calgary Church

CALGARY, Oct. 12.—Of interest in Edmonton is the recent morning ceremony at St. Stephen's Anglican Church, when Mavis Joan Appleton and Hugh Alexander Baker exchanged marriage vows.

Rev. E. H. Maddocks performed the ceremony before an altar banked with white chrysanthemums mingled with fern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Appleton of Revelstoke, B.C., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Baker of Edmonton.

Train-length gown of [illegible] satin was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her father. The fitted bodice featured an off-the-shoulder neckline and net yoke. Headdress of rosettes in matching satin caught her chapel veil, and she carried a bouquet of talisman roses.

TWO ATTENDANTS

Mrs. Harry O'Hara of Kelowna attended the bride as matron of honor, wearing a green taffeta gown, with matching headdress, and carrying Ke-Ko-Mo carnations.

Miss Kay Olafson of Edmonton was bridesmaid. She was frocked in mauve taffeta with matching headdress, and yellow carnations comprised her bouquet.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Don Baker of Edmonton, and the guests were ushered by Bruce Bailey and Bill Burge.

During the signing of the register, Jack Brown sang "O Perfect Love."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Appleton chose a black gabardine suit with matching hat and a mink stole. Pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses completed her costume.

Mrs. Baker wore a grey suit and hat with pink accessories and pink roses en corsage.

RECEPTION AT PALLISER

Reception was held in the [illegible] dining room of the Palliser hotel.

The bride's table was centred with a triple tiered cake, and decorated with white mums, pink carnations and roses.

Bridal toast was proposed by Jack Burton.

Following a honeymoon trip to Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Baker will make their home in Calgary.

For travelling the bride wore a mink coloured dress of wool with taupe accessories. Corsage of gardenias and yellow roses was pinned to her Chinese red short coat.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Baker attended the University of Alberta. The bride is a member of Delta Delta Delta fraternity and the bridegroom is affiliated with Lambda Chi Alpha.

Leona Sawyer Pledges Vows With D. Leitch

Bride Chooses Grey Ensemble For Highlands Church Wedding

Chrysanthemums in autumn shades of white, yellow and mauve decorated Highlands United Church for the late afternoon ceremony in which Leona Yvonne Sawyer and Douglas Burrows Leitch exchanged marriage vows.

Rev. D. K. Allan read the marriage lines for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Sawyer and the son of Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Leitch, all of Edmonton.

BRIDE CHOSE GREY

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a grey three-piece suit with grey shoes, blue spruce velvet hat and bag. White blouse and gloves completed her costume.

Mrs. Murray Smith attended the bride wearing a blue suit with black accessories and red rose corsage.

Bridegroom's attendants were Murray Smith and Bob Baker.

Drawing room of the Macdonald hotel was the scene of a reception following the ceremony when the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom assisted in receiving.

MOTHERS RECEIVE

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sawyer chose an afternoon dress of plum rose silk faille. Her accessories were black and cream roses pinned to her shoulder.

Mrs. Leitch wore a two-piece afternoon dress of black crepe with pink accessories and a pink rose corsage.

TRIPLE-TIER CAKE

Three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table which was decorated with pink sweetheart roses and baby mums.

After a honeymoon trip to Banff Mr. and Mrs. Leitch will make their home in Calgary.

Glads Used To Decorate For Wedding

Gladioli decorated St. Joseph's Cathedral recently when vows were pledged by Marianne Winnicki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Winnicki, and William Albert Ukrw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ukrw of Derwent.

Rev. Father Reynolds officiated.

The bride's father gave her in marriage and she wore a white taffeta gown with lace yoke and finger-tip veil. Her bouquet was of red roses with white baby 'mums.

Miss Caroline Jacobs was bridesmaid. She was in yellow taffeta with matching chapel veil and bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations.

Walter Ukrw was best man and Bennie Winnicki was an usher.

Reception followed at the Club Roosevelt where the three-tier wedding cake centred the bride's table.

Leck Martin proposd the bridal toast.

The couple left for a honeymoon to Vancouver and Seattle and will live in Edmonton.

For travelling, the bride wore a raspberry wine gabardine suit with navy accessories.

Prairie Hospital

SWIFT CURRENT Sask.—(CP)—Swift Current is to have a new 114-bed hospital soon. The hospital board has accepted a tender for $588,561 and work will start immediately.

Fall Flowers Form Wedding Setting

BASHAW, Oct. 12.—Fall flowers and ferns formed a setting in St. Peter's Anglican church here for the recent wedding of Marjory May Pearson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Pearson, to Donald Stanley Noble, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noble of Vancouver.

Rev. J. A. Roberts officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with long, tapering sleeves and a full skirt which fell slightly en train.

Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a floral bandeau and she carried bouquet of deep pink roses. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

TWO ATTENDANTS

Attendants were Miss Catherine Kostenuk of Bashaw and Miss Joan Ellis of Vancouver. They were in apple green net and lace and pale yellow faille and lace, respectively. They wore floral bandeaus in their hair. The former carried pale pink carnations and Miss Ellis chose variegated carnations.

Allan Noble of Vancouver was best man and ushers were Mac Raemer and Stanley Pearson, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. B. Holt played the wedding music.

RECEPTION FOR 60

Reception to 60 guests was held in the Masonic Temple where the bride's table was centred by a four-tier cake flanked by white tapers in silver holders and fall flowers.

J. G. Pearson proposed the toast to the bride and congratulatory telegrams were read.

The couple left for a motortrip to the Pacific Coast by way of Jasper, Banff and the United States. They will live in Vancouver.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegrooms mother and brother, Allan, Gordon Wilkin and Joan Ellis, all of Vancouver; Mrs. J. E. Cumming, Edmonton; Miss E. Kemp, Camrose; Mr. and Mrs. Vergil Stevens, Rimbey.

The bride is a graduate of Vancouver General hospital.

Boys' Leader

EDMONTON—(CP)—D. R. McNaughton, city probation officer, has been appointed director of boys' activities for the Alberta government. A former police officer, Mr. McNaughton planned last winter for a junior police force to help check juvenile delinquency.

The Champ

CASTOR, Alta.—(CP)—Harold Reis' bull, Don, is strutting around these days like the champion he is. Don fought off four other bulls just his size one moonlight night. Though Don doesn't know it, all four were his own reflection in a four-pane basement window, which he shattered one by one.

Red Deer's Ducks Seem To Be Learning Things

RED DEER, Oct. 12.—Hunters in the Red Deer Region are having poor luck these days, if reports are true. Ducks, apparently, are leaving the smaller sloughs, and congregating in large numbers on the lakes, where they have a more sporting chance of survival.

And the birds seem to be learning a few tricks themselves.

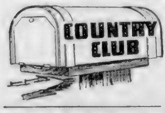
According to Joe Cardinal, game inspector, they make a series of close banking turns, and spiral upwards in small circles, until they are well out of shotgun range, before heading for the feeding grounds.

On returning to the lakes, the mallards circle high over the water, then seem to drop down like a helicopter.

Rocky's Romance Ever Realistic

By Ken Liddell
Provincial News Editor

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Oct. 12—When you were a kid going home with a grade six geography under your arm, Rocky Mountain House seemed a romantic place so far, far away. You pictured it as a place with a stockade and inhabited by assorted characters dressed like Daniel Boone and carrying a Colt on their hip and a Sharpes under their arm.



You thought the same of Lake Winnipegosis, which seemed so far, far north, and you kept thinking the same of Lake Winnipegosis until one day you drove up there and found it to have, at its southern end, anyway, the finest crop of weeds of any place in Canada.

But the romance of Rocky Mountain House persisted and even having been there a couple of times it still persists. But now it is no longer romantic because it is remote, but because when you are there everywhere else seems so remote.

Which is the true test of the romance of its name.

• • •

It seems so clear, so fresh and so bright, even when it is raining.

It is not in the mountains. But it takes its name from the mountains that are so big in its backyard, yet 60 miles away, that they seem like one of those old-fashioned backdrops on a theatre stage.

When you are in Rocky Mountain House and look to the east, you see the clearings of the farmers, lined with birch, spruce and pine.

When you come to the highway from Red Deer you pass the cemetery of this community or that, and you know it is a young country because there are more people in the villages than in the cemeteries.

• • •

But when you look from Rocky Mountain House to the west and you see those mountains, so majestic, so impenetrable before you, seemingly so strong and so safe and so peacefully picturesque, you feel you can't go farther.

You can, but you don't want to. And you hate to turn back.

Which is the true test of nature's greatness.

• • •

Here is a place where it is easy to maintain romance of the name. The abbreviation, Rocky, carries it. And the weekly paper, The Mountaineer, is a natural.

But it helps, too, to be able to report such community happenings as that from Ricinus that brown bears have been seen in people's pigyards, four cougars were reported and coyotes are bold enough to stay on the road when cars pass.

• • •

They are building the David Thompson highway through there and, it is hoped, ultimately it will reach into those mountains and grab hold of the Jasper-Banff route.

And when it does it will twist the necks of those who come from the mad outside world and they will race down through Rocky's country.

But let them take care. Let those who know it today put up signs along the highway. And let the signs say, "This is Nature's home. Quiet zone. Please do not blow horn."

Whitecourt Area Road Popular For Test Trips

WHITECOURT, Oct. 12. — The new road from Whitecourt to Edson via Mahaska and Shining Bank is source of great interest these days as motorists from both ends are exploring the possibilities.

New link begins some 14 miles west and south from Whitecourt. About nine miles are roughly bulldozed ready for next year's work.

Groat Creek will need a bridge in highwater periods.

Two more bridges are to be built though now rough, precipitous roads enable a motorist to pass down and around.

Two choices are open: via Bear Lake or across the McLeod Valley ferry to Peers, then west to Edson.

Town Lighting Is Improved

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 12—Drumheller's new downtown street lights were thrown on full power Saturday by M. Leyshon, chairman of the civic lighting committee, at a ceremony attended by several officials of the Canadian Utilities.

The lights, which give the downtown area an increased wattage of 12,000, come through 43 steel standard and 15 suspension time lamps. The standards are erected from the sidewalk and are over 15 feet in height.

High Prairie Store Will Open Soon

HIGH PRAIRIE, Oct. 12.—High Prairie Co-Operative store, on the site of the former bakery, will be opened for business about October 15, according to the manager, D. C. Wilson of Rocky Mountain House.

A five-year lease has been obtained from Abdul Zrien. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and their three children are already in residence and overseeing the remodeling.

Officers of the Co-Op include Bill Smythe, chairman; William Basarab, secretary-treasurer, and directors, C. A. Spendiff, Albert Hill, Walter McDonald, Roy Cox, Sam Jones, E. Nordin and Jack Napier, all farmers of the High Prairie, Enilda and Big Prairie districts.

Board and Teachers Honor Superintendent

DERWENT, Oct. 12.—N. Myskiw was elected president of the Two Hills local of the Alberta Teachers' Association at the 12th annual convention.

At the convention banquet, an easy chair was presented to F. Hannochko, superintendent, on behalf of the board and teachers. K. Hutchinson was banquet speaker.

Other officers elected included W. Tashuk, vice-president; F. Shymko, secretary-treasurer, and councillors, N. Poohkey and Dan Chrapko.

Threshing Finished

RED DEER, Oct. 12—Grain elevator agents report that cutting is practically completed in Red Deer district, with around 90 per cent of all grain threshed. Wheat grades are now running around four, five, and 6 with a small amount of three Northern.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY PLAN

FORT McMURRAY, Oct. 12—The Waterways-McMurray Chamber of Commerce will hold Hallowe'en parties at both points for children of the district. Program will be suited to children of all ages and will include free shows at both points. The parties are promoted to give the children entertainment under supervision and to eliminate usual destructive Hallowe'en pranks.

Gas, Telephone Light Men Busy

LLOYDMINSTER, Oct. 12.—Lloydminster Gas Company has a crew working to get gas installed in the many new houses and blocks in the town before freezeup.

The Canadian Utilities is busy extending lines for additional lighting, while Alberta Telephone Company is experiencing difficulty in keeping up with the demand for installations.

Students' Council For Seba Beach

SEBA, Oct. 12.—Seba high school has reorganized the students' union with the officers: President, Laura A. Cooper; vice-president, Olga Davidiuk; secretary-treasurer, Doreen Starke; librarian, Betty Bryant; sports convener, Stanley MacLean; social convener, Olga Davidiuk; ground supervisor, Ronald Brown; lunchroom supervisors, Helen Rich and George Bobryk.

Lights on Army Cars Requested

Wetaskiwin Jury Adds Rider After Accident Inquiry

WETASKIWIN, Oct. 12—A verdict of accidental death, with no blame attached to any one, was returned by a coroner's jury in an inquest on Bert Ledingham, whose death occurred on Sept. 26.

The jury added a rider that army vehicles should be equipped with marker lights as required by traffic regulations.

Ledingham, an employee of the Commonwealth Drilling company, was killed when the truck in which he was riding and an army truck sideswiped on the Calgary-Edmonton highway.

The evidence showed both vehicles were proceeding north but the army vehicle was stopped on the highway to make minor repairs. It carried no marker lights, and Ledingham, also proceeding north, with his vision obscured by a southbound car, failed to see the parked vehicle.

Young Golfer Gets New Crown

RED DEER, Oct. 12—Young Doug Silverberg, winner of the Alberta junior golf crown for the past two years, continued his trophy gathering at Red Deer's Golf and Country club, Sunday, by winning his fourth consecutive city junior championship, shooting a 74, on a par 70 course.

In second place was Howard French, Calgary, with an 85, followed by another up-and-coming golfer in the Silverberg family, Dick, who posted an 89. In fourth place, Lloyd Crawford of Red Deer was home in 90. About 15 competed.

LLOYD GETS ITS NUMBER

LLOYDMINSTER, Oct. 12—Another indication of the steady growth of Lloydminster is inclusion of house and street numbers in the new Alberta telephone directory. It was a great improvement a couple of years ago when the Kinsmen Club undertook the job of numbering the streets and houses in Lloydminster.

Legion Hall Plan Okayed

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 12. — The "green light" was given to Drumheller Legion for the $15,000 quonset hut project and work will soon start.

The quonset will be erected on a lot adjacent to the present memorial hall, according to President Harry Burton.

Ritson-Bennett, who was in conference with the firm supplying the hut at their Calgary quarters, said that the steel strike in the United States made it imperative the veterans take delivery on the hut as soon as possible.

Wetaskiwin Leads League

RED DEER, Oct. 12.—Before a cheering Thanksgiving Day crowd of 500 Red Deer's entry in the Central Alberta high school rugby league was defeated by Lacombe, 13 to 9.

Doug Silverberg stood out for the losers, being responsible for eight of Red Deer's nine points. Haworth and Miller provided the power behind Lacombe's play.

League standings now show Wetaskiwin leading with eight points; Ponoka and Red Deer tied for second place with five apiece, and Lacombe with four.

Sunday Bus Line

TOMAHAWK, Oct. 12. — J. H. Shaw, operating the Tomahawk Bus Line, has started Sunday service. The bus will leave Tomahawk at 10 a.m. and leave Edmonton at 5 p.m.

Lloydminster Is Doing Well After Big Rash of Building

LLOYDMINSTER, Oct. 12
Announcement last week that the town council had approved building permits to the amount of $283,000, did not include any of the buildings that are now in the course of construction, and the total hits new records for the border town.

Chief among these is the new Prince Charles Hotel in the downtown section being erected by Miner Construction Company for the Lloydminster Enterprises Limited.

Nearing completion now is the business block which will be occupied by Fisher's variety store and, it is rumored, by T. Eaton Western Ltd. Rooms above the stores will be for offices.

CHURCH BUILDINGS

New church buildings are also in the limelight.

The Grace United Church is now almost completed. The Lutheran congregation is erecting a new [illegible].

The Cleve building was recently completed and two of the occupants have already moved in, the Quality Cleaners and Tailors and Mrs. Oliver's ladies' wear store.

There is steady growth in the residential area with the erection of many modern houses, and the new permits issued by the council include the new hospital, a business block and several houses.

During the summer the new Lloydminster composite high school was completed and is now in use. Plans are now under way to [illegible] another $20,000 worth of [illegible].

Boost Is Given Offender Drive

RED DEER, Oct. 12—Women's clubs in Red Deer and district, have declared war on sex criminals, and are engaged in signing petitions, endorsing a resolution that all such criminals be detained until competent medical authorities are satisfied that they are no longer a menace.

The clubs are adding momentum to the drive started by the Vegreville chapter of the I.O.D.E., last month, and endorsed by the Daughters of the Empire provincial executive committee, who circulated the petitions to all provincial chapters.

MEMBER FAVORABLE

Mrs. Jack Lawrence, Red Deer, has been instrumental in having all other women's organizations in the city adopt the resolution. Over 800 copies, with room for 12 signatures on each, are circulating in the district.

When completed, each petition will be mailed to Fred Shaw, M.P. for Red Deer constituency. Mr. Shaw has sent a personal letter to each of the 12 clubs, assuring them of a sympathetic reception to the petitions, and that the movement will receive his support.

Hanna Man Dies

HANNA, Oct. 12.—Death of Louis W. Doyle, 53, occurred Oct. 4.

He is survived by his wife and two sons, Roger and William at home, and one brother and three sisters.

Funeral Is Help To Cancer Fund

VERMILION, Oct. 12—The funeral of Walter Alexander, of Battle View, whose death occurred recently, was held on Sunday.

Mr. Alexander, born in Quebec homesteaded north of the Battle River and lived there until his death.

He was elected to the Vermilion municipal hospital board in 1939 and served continuously.

He expressed a wish that instead of flowers at his funeral his friends make a donation to the cancer fund. His wish was observed.

Veteran Honored

DRUMHELLER, Oct. 12—Fred J Hawes, who enlisted with the Calgary Highlanders at outbreak of the Second World War, and served in England and the continent, was one of the first veterans in [illegible] district to receive the issue of service medals from the department of national defense at Ottawa.

Search For Talent

INNISFAIL, Oct. 12. — A concert will be held in the Legion [illegible] Drewie Lennox Chapter, I.O.D.E. in [illegible] and the artists will compete for $[illegible] [illegible].

Children Can Have A Good Time Dressing Up In Fancy Clothes

Dear Tawasis:

It's always fun for boys and girls to dress up in fancy clothes. Having a fancy-dress party is a good way to spend an afternoon in the house when it is too miserable to play outside.

You can have a lot of fun with your friends dressing up in costumes that you can make from curtains and sheets. This is more fun than having them arrive already dressed in fancy clothes.

If there is an attic in your house it would be a splendid place to get the costumes ready. It is better to chose a room where untidiness won't matter since you may make quite a mess with pieces of material, cardboard and scissors.

Just as soon as your friends get together they should each decide on just what it is that they are going to represent. When they have decided this they can look around for the materials that they will require.

BUT BE CAREFUL

One of the great pleasures of dressing up in fancy clothes is the search that takes place for the things you will require. When looking for costumes you must be careful not to upset any closets or to cause any damage.

There are many different characters that you can dress up as. It only takes a little originality, an old suit, and some straw to dress up as a scarecrow. It wouldn't be hard for a boy to represent a cowboy with big hat and lasso. And if you don't have the necessary hat you can always make it from cardboard. Part of the fun of such a party is making the things that you can't find, but that are necessary for your costume.

It would be fun and easy to dress up as a fireman. From old clothes you could make a uniform and the important helmet could be made from cardboard painted with gold paint. To make our representation complete you could carry a doll over your shoulder.

LONG BLACK SKIRT

A girl could have a good time putting together a witches' costume. A long black skirt and white blouse would serve the purpose. You could easily make a tall pointed hat from cardboard and paint it black and carry around a broom to complete the effect.

Little children would find it fun to dress up as Peter Pan and Wendy. All they would have to do is to put on white nightgowns over their ordinary clothes. It's just as easy for some boy or girl to dress as a dunce. For this costume all that is necessary is a pointed hat with the word "dunce" printed on it.

At some time or other every boy would like to be a pirate and dressing up as one would give him the opportunity. Important parts of this costume are a stocking hat, a sash of bright material and a sword that can be made from cardboard. It isn't difficult at all to find costumes. Ingenuity is all that is necessary.

Once everyone was dressed in their costume you could have them parade around the room and a winner could be chosen. It's lots of fun.

Sincerely,

Joan Walker

Birthday Greetings

Today birthday greetings go to Gordon Paul, 10093-129 street, who celebrated his sixth birthday Oct. 2. Gordon, who doesn't have to worry about going to school, has been playing with his dog, Tippy. He likes to ride around the neighborhood on his very own bike and sometimes he runs errands for his mother. Gordon collects pretty shells as a hobby.

Uncle Wiggily's Bedtime Story

By Howard R. Garis

Buster and Bunty, as well as Double Dip, were so surprised at hearing a voice talking about cheese and Ghost Island that, for a moment, the little stowaways in the pirate gold boat couldn't say a word. Then Buster whispered:

"Isn't that Uncle Butter, Bunty?"

"Of course it is, Buster. I should think you'd know his voice by this time!"

"I do. But what's he doing by prancing around our boat?"

"It isn't exactly our boat, Buster."

"I know, Bunty, it's the boat of daddy's gold hunting expedition to Ghost Island. But we're in the boat, hidden under this tent and I guess we can call it our boat if we want to."

"Oh, I suppose so, Buster."

"You can have my part of the boat if you'll give me some ice cream. Buster or Bunty! Gosh, how I love ice cream."

"Quiet, Double Dip!"

"Buster, is that you raising up the edge of the canvas that Uncle Wiggily is going to use for a tent when he gets to Ghost Island? Are you raising the cover?"

"No. I think it's Uncle Butter. Yep, it is."

"What's he going to do?"

"I don't know, Bunty. Oh, yes I do. He's raising the edge of the canvas that covers the stuff in the middle of our boat. It's the same canvas which we're hiding under—Oh, my goodness!"

"What is it, Buster? What is it?"

"Uncle Butter is sitting on the edge of the boat. He has his little radio with him. I think he's trying to tune in some station!"

A moment later Uncle Butter's radio began playing—very loud—bringing in a circus band number. Buster and Bunty, looking out from beneath the canvas, saw the jolly old goat jump to his hind hoofs and trying to switch off ihs radio. But Uncle Butter couldn't seem to find the switch.

For the radio kept on playing and finally Unce Butter tucked it beneath his coat and bleated:

"I got to get under cover. I don't know what's got into my radio that it acts so queer.

"But now my queer radio may wake up Wiggy or Bosun or that pirate dog, Captain Silver. Then they'll come snooping around. Then they'd stop me from stowing away on this old boat and going to Ghost Island unbeknownst to 'em. I'll hide now!"

"Ugh! Ugh! Ouch!" grunted the little fat pig.

"Eh? What's this? Who's in this pirate gold boat in the middle of the night? Oh, golly! Is it a ghost from Ghost Island?" Uncle Butter's queer radio began playing another tune. Buster and Bunty began to giggle.

Netherland's first roads consisted of layers of willow twigs and their upper structure was composed of small tree-trunks placed side by side.

OIL

Late Simmons Tests Assuring

By Don Flach

Support for Imperial Simmons becoming a substantial extension to the Redwater field or a new field is gained in a brief report made by the company two weeks after the well was first reported as a likely producer.

In the recent report Imperial states that after a test of the interval from 3,115 to 31,137 feet, the well began blowing oil out of the drill pipe after 90 feet of pipe had been pulled. No mention was made of water, nor did it state the result of the one-hour drillstem test.

In the earlier report, released September 28, two intervals were tested. First gave a slight gas blow when it failed mechanically. Second test did not flow oil, but it flowed as the pipe was being pulled. Intervals tested were not disclosed.

DEEP PAYZONE POSSIBLE

Unofficially the oil was first found 190 feet above the Redwater water level, suggesting that this is the thickness of payzone if the well is an extension of the Redwater field. Greatest payzone thickness so far found in the Redwater field is 161 feet.

The well is on lsd. 1-25-56-21W4, three and one-half miles from the nearest completions at the southeast end of the Redwater field.

DAILY AVERAGE 67,878

More than 200 wells are now in production at the Redwater field according to the weekly report of the Conservation Board. Report also showed daily average production for week ending October 3 was 67,873 barrels, nearly 3,000 barrels short of previous week's average.

The same report also showed the total of Alberta producing wells to go over the 1,000 mark for the first time in the history of the province. Actual number of wells was 1,006, of which 324 were at Leduc-Woodbend, 300 at Turner Valley, 83 in Lloydminster and 97 in other areas in addition to the 202 at Redwater.

202 AT REDWATER

In addition to its 202 successful completions the Redwater field has had four failures—all on the western flank of the field marking its limits there. Other limits of the field have yet to be defined by dry holes.

Latest failure was drilled by Western Leaseholds after 39 successful completions on lsd 4-17-57-21W4 with abandonment depth at 3,331 feet. The well is reported to have contacted the D3 26 feet above the waterline and that the formation in this interval was non-porous.

Other failures in the short life of the field were Imperial No. 5, drilled shortly after the field was discovered and Edbridge Nos. 1 and 2 drilled more recently.

LLOYD PRODUCTION UP

Lloydminster oil field produced 133,453 barrels of crude during September, according to preliminary figures released today by the Lloydminster Petrolium Association. Daily average for the field is 4,448 barrels. Prdouction for the first nine months of the year totalled 1,150,952 barrels, an increase of nearly 40,000 barrels over the same period of last year.

Market has been reduced slightly since the first of the month and weather conditions will largely determine the amount of oil delivered this month.

NORMANDVILLE "IN"

Imperial Normandville No. 1 kicked-in about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, according to word received here this morning. Due to high sediment content, the report stated, well was turned into the flare pit and has not yet been turned into the separator. As yet the report adds, it is impossible to estimate the potentialities of the well.

Normnadville well was drilled to a total depth of 7,424 feet, then plugged back and seven-inch casing set to 6,785. Well was then gun-perforated in the 15-feet interval of Devonian reef from 6,730 to 6,745 feet.

Perforated section was acidized Friday and the well commenced to flow as the acid tool was pulled. Crew successfully shut in the well and then set about adding mud to "kill" it before proceeding with tests of its potentialities.

London Stocks

LONDON, Oct. 12—(Reuters)—British government stocks were weak today. Heavy offerings from institutions and industrial sources depressed prices and losses of over one point were shown. Long-dated issues met with some bear selling and closed at the lowest of the day.

Most other sections of the London Stock Exchange were hesitant and inclined to be easier. Small declines were fairly widespread in industrials although trading these issues was small and really insufficient to test the undertone.

Oils were lower where changed. Profit-taking followed the recent rise in the Canadian Eagle issues which were both a few pence off.

Foreign bonds showed Austrian issues again firmer on small demand. Others remained steady. Foreign rails met with some bear covering and were occasionally firmer.

Free-State issues were prominent among Kaffirs. London buying followed higher Johannesburg advances and an improved tone spread quickly throughout the section. Many useful gains in both producers and developers were shown at the close.

Industrials Push To Record Levels

Metals and Golds Firm; West Oils In Comeback

TORONTO, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Demand continued strong in industrial stocks on the Toronto Stock Exchange today lifting the average price level to the highest point in more than a year for the second successive session.

Base metals turned firmer in mid-session and a late flurry lifted western oils into higher ground. Golds were comparatively quiet and firm. Volume was about 1,200,000 shares.

A holidaying New York market failed to halt the industrial advance. Papers continued leading the upturn as gains ranged from fractions to two points. Liquors, refining oils, utilities, constructions and foods were also higher in the groupings.

Western oils recovered early easiness. Late demand lifted key issues on gains ranging up to 20 cents.

Gains General At Montreal

MONTREAL, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Prices were marked up all along the line on the Montreal Stock Exchange and curb market today.

Industrial volume amounted to 48,900 shares and mines had a turnover of approximately 185,800 shares.

Papers continued yesterday's climb but not with as much vigor.

Beverages and senior oils were advancing.

East Sullivan submitted to selling pressure with a turnover of 14,900 shares and slipped 10 cents to 4.00.

Gold Production Climbs 306,272 Ounces In 1949

OTTAWA, Oct. 12—(CP)—A band of 125,000 gold miners is helping in Canada's fight for dollars.

They dug into the bowls of the earth to produce 29,289,044 fine ounces of gold during the first seven months of the year—an increase of 306,272 ounces over production in the same period over a year ago.

Increased gold production helps Canada build dollar and gold reserves. Almost the total amount of mining output is purchased by the government either to sell to the U.S. or hold against possible deficit in foreign payments.

The government now pays $38.50 an ounce, as refined by the Royal Canadian mint. Before dollar devaluation, the payment was $35 an ounce.

July output by western provinces and British Columbia with last year's production figures in brackets:

British Columbia 24,845 (25,695). Manitoba and Saskatchewan 19,615 (18,592); Northwest Territories 16,761 (9,544); Yukon 9,685 (4,426).

Livestock

EDMONTON, Oct. 12. — Total receipts: Cattle 945, calves 434, hogs 1,324, sheep 559.

Wednesday's cattle market opened fairly active under liberal new receipts. All local packer buyers were operating but were narrow in their requirements and showed most interest in the better quality butchers. Orders for outside accounts were accepting the big percentage of the morning's sales. All classes were moving scaleward at prices about .50 per cwt. lower for the week. Grading was somewhat closer but a reasonable clearance is expected.

Medium to good steers sold from 15.50-18.00, a few choice handyweights realized 19.50. Medium to good heifers traded from 13.00-16.00, with odd tops up to 17.00.

Cows sold about steady, good light butchers 12.00-12.50, good heavies 11.50-12.00. Bulls were steady at 12.00-14.50.

Stockers and feeders quoted from 14.00-16.50. Handyweight veal calves bringing 18.00-20.00.

Hogs continue unchanged, grade A for shipment 30.00, and grade A at local plants 27.50.

Lambs steady, good to choice handyweights bringing 19.00-21.00. Buck lambs are discounted 1.00 per cwt. from grade.

AT WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12. — (CP) — Trade ruled spotty under the weight of heavy deliveries on the Winnipeg livestock market today, with most slaughter classes considered around 50 lower to date this week. Steers ran into indifferent demand.

Quality was most plain, with cows and stockers making up a good share of the supply. A few stockers are holding near steady, with others 50 lower.

Cattle 2,300 (plus 4,400 held over): steers up to 1,050 lbs., choice 20.00-21.00; good 18.50-19.50; steers over 1,050 lbs., choice 20.00-21.00; good 18.50-19.50; heifers, choice 16.50-17.50; good 15.50-16.00; fed calves, choice 21.00-22.00; good 19.00-20.50; cows, good 12.50-13.50; bulls, good 14.50-15.50; stocker and feeder steers 16.50-18.00.

Calves 455: good and choice veal 20.00-24.00.

Hogs 285: grade A dressed 28.00-28.50.

Sheep 320: good lambs 21.50.

AT CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Oct. 12—(AP)—Hogs were steady to 25 cents lower, but cattle were steady to 50 cents higher and lambs and yearlings strong to 25 cents up today.

Most good and choice butcher hogs ranged from 17.00 to 18.35. Sows took 15.50 to 17.50.

Good to choice steers were 28.00 to 35.25 and comparable fed heifers 26.50 to 31.50. Beef cows ranged downward from 18.00, sausage bulls from 19.50 and vealers from 27.00.

Early sales of good and choice wooled lambs brought 23.75 to 24.00 and the latter price also was paid for a load or so of shorn type. The ewe market was not established in early tries.

Receipts on sale included an estimated 10,000 hogs, 8,500 cattle, 400 calves and 2,000 sheep.

AT TORONTO

TORONTO, Oct. 12. — (CP) — Prices were steady on a few good cattle in trading on the Toronto stock yards this morning but weaker in lower grades. Receipts reported by the Dominion marketing service were: cattle 700; calves 390; hogs 690; sheep and lambs 400. Left from Tuesday's close were 3,000 cattle.

Medium to good weighty steers brought $20.50-$22.25. Good heifers sold from $18.50-$19 and plain light steers and heifers were $16-18. Fed yearlings sold mostly at $19-$23.50. Good cows brought $14-$15 and canners and cutters ranged from $10-$11.50. Good bulls were $16-$16.75 with plain selling downward to $15. Good feeders brought $18.50-$20. Stockers were $14-$18.

Hog prices settled unchanged at $29.50 for grade A and $29.10 for grade B1. Sows were steady at $19 dressed.

BRICK HOMES will be cheaper to build with this device, claim its inventors. Bricks can be laid at four times normal rate. Demonstrating it is Kitty McGlynn of Huntingdon College, Montgomery, Ala.

Canadians Spend More On Clothes Than Rent

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—(CP)—To show pop where the money goes, government statisticians computed today:

That Canadians spent more money on clothes last year than they did on rent; they spent about [illegible] times more on tobacco and liquor than they did on home furnishings.

Canadians did more spending last year than at any time during the last 10 years, including the hectic years of the Second World War.

What Mr. and Mrs. Canada spent last year to enjoy life was detailed in the Bureau of Statistics green book on income and expenditure.

It showed:

Canadians spent $10,083,000,000 in 1948—about three times more than the $3,770,000,000 they spent 10 years previously.

They shelled out $[illegible] for "paid rents and imputed rents of owner-occupied houses, electricity, gas, domestic service." But clothes cost $1,325,000,000.

Education cost $65,000,000; jewelry $71,000,000. They smoked and drank $941,000,000 worth of tobacco and liquor, and spent $107,000,000 on things to decorate homes.

Canadians spent $2,796,000,000 on food, the biggest amount during the last 10 years.

Lipsticks, face powder and all kinds of cosmetics, as well as drugs, took $197,000,000 last year. That was a little more than the $151,000,000 spent on soap and cleaning supplies.

Butter Holdings Still Mounting

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—(CP)—With six of nine cities showing storage increases, butter holdings on Oct. 7 amounted to 56,900,000 pounds, compared with 32,988,000 pounds on the same date last year, the Bureau of Statistics reported yesterday.

Holdings were higher in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Regina, Saskatoon and Edmonton, and lower in Quebec, Calgary and Vancouver.

Stocks by western cities with holdings last year in brackets:

Winnipeg [illegible] ([illegible]); Regina 1,170,000 (434,000); Saskatoon 342,000 (234,000); Edmonton 3,671,000 (2,798,000); Calgary 1,508,000 (1,552,000); Vancouver 1,327,000 (2,868,000).

Western Oils Volume Higher

BOND MARKET

MONTREAL, Oct. 12. — (CP) — There was a firmer undertone on the bond market here today.

Middle term Dominions led the way up with Canada 3's of 56, 3's of 57 and 3's of 59 firming ⅛ each. There was a good demand for provincial long terms, especially Ontario and Quebec issues.

In the corporation list, Interprovincial Pipe Line Company was off a point.

EARTH'S GETTING WARMER

New Type of Climate In Making Say Experts

By the Canadian Press

The current letter of the Royal Bank of Canada discusses, of all things, the weather.

It doesn't pretend to do anything about it, and, in fact, with a very few verbal changes it might be discussing present-day economics. For instance, it says:

"Mankind has never known a 'normal' climate. We of 1949 are at the tail end of an ice age, living in a time following a period of climatic violence as great as any the earth has known."

That might almost be a metaphorical comment on post-war problems, the atom bomb or currency devaluation. But to get our minds back strictly to weather and what the bank has to say of it:

"Climate is one of the greatest upsetters of human plans and activities. It dictates our economy, what we wear, the kind of house we live in, the sort of food we eat, how hard we work, and even when and where we spend our vacation.

"We are all familiar with the daily cycle in the temperate zones . . . the annual range is also familiar.

"Next in significance, probably is the widely-accepted, 11-year cycle corresponding to the cycle of sunspot frequency.

"One point about which there seems to be a general agreement is that the earth's surface is getting warmer. Just a month ago Professor G. H. T. Kimble and Professor F. K. Hare, both of McGill University's department of geography, totted up the score for this summer, added it to their charts, and decided that we are well on our way to a new type of climate in the countries bordering on the Atlantic coast.

"Summers, they say, are getting progressively hotter and longer; winters are milder. But they hasten to add, our historical records go back only a short distance. The present trend, detected in the 1880's, 'may be just a shiver in the world's weather, but it might also be the road back to a much different climate.'"

Rye Continues Climb In Futures Trading

WINNIPEG, Oct. 12.—(CP)—In coarse grain futures on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today, rye scored moderate advances to mark up new season highs during a dull trading session.

Oats and barley both came in for routine shipper demand. Offerings were light.

The United Kingdom was allocated 1,200,000 bushels of wheat under terms of the Anglo-Canadian wheat agreement in the only export trade report today.

Prices of class two wheat, for export to countries other than the United Kingdom, were unchanged.
